The Apostolic Liturgy and the Epistle to the Hebrews John Edward Field, 1882 Questioning the Canon Christine Meyer, 2021-07-05 To what extent do minority writers feel represented by the literary canon of a nation and its body of great works To what extent do they adhere to or contest the supposedly universal values conveyed through those texts and how do they situate their own works within the national tradition Building on Edward W Said's contrapuntal readings and Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak's reflections on the voice of the subaltern this monograph examines the ways in which Rafik Schami Emine Sevgi Zdamar and Feridun Zaimoglu have re-read challenged and adapted the German canon Similar to other writers in postcolonial contexts their work on the canon entails an inquiry into history and a negotiation of their relation to the texts and representations that define the host nation Through close analyses of the works of these non-native German authors the book investigates the intersection between politics ethics and aesthetics in their work focusing on the appropriation and re-evaluation of cultural legacies in German language literature Opening up a rich critical dialogue with scholars of German Studies and Postcolonial Theory Christine Meyer provides a fresh perspective on German language minority literature since the reunification Watch our talk with the editor Christine Meyer here <https://youtu.be/bIO8q5QIU>
