Wisdom and the Moral Life Margaret Elizabeth Mohrmann, 1995      The Spirit of Early Christian Thought Robert Louis Wilken, 2003-01-01 Many of the problems afflicting American education are the result of a critical shortage of qualified teachers in the classrooms The teacher crisis is surprisingly resistant to reforms and is getting worse This analysis of the causes underlying the crisis seeks to offer concrete affordable proposals for effective reform Vivian Troen and Katherine Boles two experienced classroom teachers and education consultants argue that because teachers are recruited from a pool of underqualified candidates given inadequate preparation and dropped into a culture of isolation without mentoring support or incentives for excellence they are programmed to fail Half quit within their first five years Troen and Boles offer an alternative a model of reform they call the Millennium School which changes the way teachers work and improves the quality of their teaching When teaching becomes a real profession they contend more academically able people will be drawn into it colleges will be forced to improve the quality of their education and better prepared teachers will enter the classroom and improve the profession      Mr. Ambrose's Letters on the Rebellion John Pendleton Kennedy, 1865      The Pelican, 1918

Kennedy,2008-10-30 The Cardinal Virtues in the Middle Ages István Bejczy,2011-08-11 Despite its non Christian origins the scheme of the cardinal virtues prudence justice fortitude and temperance found wide acceptance in medieval theology philosophy and religious literature The present study is the first to investigate the history of the four virtues in the Latin Middle Ages from patristic times to the late fourteenth century It examines the position of the cardinal virtues between religious and secularized conceptions of morality and attempts to reveal some distinctly Christian aspects of medieval virtue theory notwithstanding its manifest indebtedness to ancient ethics Exploring learned and popularizing sources alike including much unedited material this study covers a broad spectrum of moral debate during ten centuries of Western intellectual history Against Palladius the Arian Vigilius of Thapsus,D.P. Curtin,2023-11-15 This work is composed by the African church father Vigilius against Palladius of Ratiaria the 4th century Arian Christian theologian In 381 AD he was deposed from his office together with Secundianus of Singidunum at the Council of Aquileia because of his Christological views He had appealed to Theodosius the emperor of the east for intervention and to support the Arianist cause This proved to be fruitless politically Palladius own writings are lost but this polemic against his claims has survived to the present day

Writing the Wrongs John L. Thompson,2001-06-28 Phyllis Tribble's Texts of Terror is a landmark among those studying women of the Bible Focusing on stories of the maltreatment of women Tribble paved the way for subsequent feminist exegetes who have been very critical of such stories in the Bible and who see Christianity as an unredeemably patriarchal religion It is commonly said that these Old Testament stories of rape murder torture and abandonment passed without comment until recent times Here Thompson traces and analyzes various Christian interpretations of these bible stories of women In drawing attention to views other than Texts of Terror Thompson speaks to Christians who are battling over how the Bible ought to be read today Mr. Ambrose Charles Edward Lawrence,1922 Sculpted Thresholds and the Liturgy of

Transformation in Medieval Lombardy Gillian B. Elliott,2022-06-24 This book explores the issue of ecclesiastical authority in Romanesque sculpture on the portals and other sculpted gateways of churches in the north Italian region of Lombardy Gillian B Elliott examines the liturgical connection between the ciborium over the altar the most sacred threshold inside the church and the sculpted portals that appeared on church exteriors in medieval Lombardy In cities such as Milan Civate Como and Pavia the liturgy of Saint Ambrose was practiced as an alternative to the Roman liturgy and the churches were constructed to respond to the needs of Ambrosian liturgy Not only do the Romanesque churches in these places correspond stylistically and iconographically but they were also linked politically in an era of intense struggle for ultimate regional authority The book considers liturgical and artistic links between interior church furnishings and exterior church sculptural programs and also applies new spatial methodologies to the interior and exterior of churches in Lombardy The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history medieval studies architectural history and religious studies Christian Grace and Pagan Virtue J. Warren Smith,2011-01-27 Warren Smith examines the neglected biblical liturgical and theological foundations of Ambrose's thought on ethics Earlier studies have found little that was distinctively Christian in Ambrose's image of the virtuous person Smith shows that although like the pagans he emphasized moderation courage justice and prudence for Ambrose these characteristics were shaped by the church's beliefs about God's salvific economy The Ethics of Courage Jacques M. Chevalier,2023-11-20 This two volume work examines far reaching debates on the concept of courage from Greek antiquity to the Christian and mediaeval periods as well as the modern era Volume 1 begins with Homeric poetry and the politics of fearless demi gods thriving on war The tales of lion hearted Heracles Achilles and Ulysses and their tragic fall at the hands of fate eventually give way to classical views of courage based on competing theories of rational wisdom and truth Fears of the enemy and anxieties about suffering and death are addressed through the lenses and teachings of medicine geography military history moral philosophy and metaphysics For early Christian thinkers the ethics of fear fate and fealty to the Almighty supplant the voice of reason and the wisdom of virtue Much of Christian doctrine's history is a long journey towards bridging the gap between Greek philosophy and devotion to God and spirits in heaven Some Church Fathers attempt to dispel the fear of suffering through a joyful craving for martyrdom and the eternal blessings that follow Others show openness to one or more of the following principles the abstractions of moral philosophy the metaphysics of Gnostic enlightenment the gift of free will and intentionality the growth of church authority and hegemony and the intrinsic worth of life on Earth Augustine Ambrose Cassian and Chrysostom play a central role in revisiting the foundations of Christian fortitude along some or all of these lines They lay the groundwork for the scholastic adaptations of faith based rationalism proposed by Peter Lombard Philip the Chancellor Albert the Great and Thomas of Aquinas The mediaeval period ends with church dissidents and Protestant Reform leaders condemning Rome's corruption and calling for a return to early Christian faith and the courage of godly fear submission suffering and fate The Sentences Peter Lombard (Bishop of Paris),2007 This volume makes available for the first time in English full translations of Book 2 of the Sentences It consists of forty four Distinctions and contains an introduction to Book 2 a list of the major chapter headings and a bibliography A Library of Fathers of the Holy Catholic Church, Anterior to the Division of the East and West,1881 The Fathers and Beyond Marcia L. Colish,2023-05-31 The papers in this second selection of articles by Professor Colish focus on thinkers of the patristic age and relate to her three monographic studies in this area published over the last two decades At the same time these papers look beyond the patristic period both backward to these authors appropriation of the classical and Christian traditions and forward to their function as authorities in later medieval intellectual history from the Carolingian Renaissance to Anselm of Canterbury the scholastics and Dante Themes which these papers address include the transmission and use of Platonism and Stoicism logic and linguistic theory and the ethics of lying moral indifference and the salvation of the virtuous pagan

The Road to War Marvin Kalb,2013-05-10 The Road to War examines how presidential commitments can lead to the use of American military force and to war Marvin Kalb notes that since World War II presidents have relied more on commitments public and private than they have on declarations of war even though the U S Constitution declares rather unambiguously that Congress has the responsibility to declare war
