Yarrington, 2010 A letter printed in the pages of The New York times in 2007 acknowledged differences between Christianity and Islam but contended that righteousness and good works should be the only areas in which the two compete That letter and a collaborative Christian response appear in this volume which includes subsequent dialogue between Muslim and Christian scholars Global Powers of Horror Francois Debrix, 2016-12-19

Global Powers of Horror examines contemporary regimes of horror into horror's intricacies and into their deployment on and through human bodies and body parts To track horror's work what horror decomposes and perhaps recomposes Debrix goes beyond the idea of the integrality and integrity of the human body and it brings the focus on parts pieces or fragments of bodies and lives Looking at horror's production of bodily fragments both against and beyond humanity the book is also about horror's own attempt at re-forming or re-creating matter from the perspective of post human non human and inhuman fragmentation Through several contemporary instances of dismantling of human bodies and pulverization of body parts this book makes several interrelated theoretical contributions. It works with contemporary post geo political figures of horror faces of concentration camp dwellers body parts of victims of terror attacks the outcome of suicide bombings graphic reports of beheadings re compositions of melted and mingled remnants of non human and human matter after 9 11 to challenge regimes of terror and security that seek to forcefully and ideologically reaffirm a biopolitics and thanatopolitics of human life in order to anchor today's often devastating deployments of the metaphysics of substance. Boko Haram and the War on Terror Caroline Varin, 2016-08-15 A comprehensive analysis of the rise of Boko Haram from a small religious cult to a major terrorist group placing them within the context of Nigerian politics and the international War on Terror. In 2009 Nigerian security forces stormed a religious cult by the name of Boko Haram killing its leader and thousands of followers. Six years later Boko Haram is an enemy to reckon with boasting 15 000 members and taking credit for 20 000 deaths. It also provides readers with an understanding of the regional dynamics that obstructed political and military cooperation among neighboring countries enabling Boko Haram's success. This book traces the group's religious origins in the early 2000s and documents its violent political claims in Nigeria and across the border in Northern Cameroon Niger and Chad. Finally it examines the impact of the international War on Terror and presents a comparative study of other contemporary terrorism movements and their networks

Blood and Mercy Clayton R. Hall Jr., DMIN., 2025-08-02 Blood and Mercy explores what the Bible truly teaches about life justice and the taking of life. From Genesis through Revelation Dr Hall examines difficult questions such as self defense vengeance capital punishment and war showing how God defines the boundaries of justice. He challenges modern assumptions and calls Christians to live in a way consistent with the cross where justice is tempered with mercy. Barnes Noble He argues that God's own standards not human opinions determine when and how force is justified and that believers must align themselves with His revealed will rather than cultural trends. The book is as much about moral conviction as it is about biblical fidelity it seeks to equip readers to think biblically about life and death issues

The Anarchist Roots of Geography Simon Springer, 2016-08-01 The Anarchist Roots of Geography sets the stage for a radical politics of possibility and freedom through a discussion of the insurrectionary geographies that suffuse our daily experiences. By embracing anarchist geographies as kaleidoscopic spatialities that allow for nonhierarchical connections between autonomous entities Simon Springer configures a new political imagination Experimentation in and through space is the story of humanity's place on the planet and the stasis and control that now supersede ongoing organizing experiments are an affront to our survival Singular ontological modes that favor one particular way of doing things disavow geography by failing to understand the spatial as a mutable assemblage intimately bound to temporality Even worse such stagnant ideas often align to the parochial interests of an elite minority and thereby threaten to be our collective undoing What is needed is the development of new relationships with our world and crucially with each other By infusing our geographies with anarchism we unleash a spirit of rebellion that foregoes a politics of waiting for change to come at the behest of elected leaders and instead engages new possibilities of mutual aid through direct action now We can no longer accept the decaying archaic geographies of hierarchy that chain us to statism capitalism gender domination racial oppression and imperialism We must reorient geographical thinking towards anarchist horizons of possibility Geography must become beautiful wherein the entirety of its embrace is aligned to emancipation
