

The background of the text is a dramatic, historical-style painting depicting the destruction of Jerusalem. The scene is set at dusk or dawn, with a fiery orange and yellow sky. In the foreground, a large, dark, rocky outcrop is visible. On this outcrop, a large group of soldiers in Roman-style armor are gathered, some standing and some kneeling, looking towards the city. A bright, intense light emanates from a point on the city's wall, suggesting a fire or a powerful explosion. The city itself is visible in the background, with its walls and buildings partially obscured by smoke and fire. The overall atmosphere is one of chaos and destruction.

escape the city and preyed upon by the enraged fanatics from within the pitiful citizens can only watch helplessly as the horrible specter of famine begins to envelope Jerusalem and spread into every household The horrors of siege warfare are driven home as we hear some of the most impassioned descriptions of man's folly ever put on paper Learn how the magnificent Great Temple was burned and obliterated and discover the fate of Jerusalem itself And finally hear the account of the incredible siege of Masada one of the last major events of the war The Jewish War is one of the most important histories to survive from ancient times dealing as it does with a subject of which there are very few sources This is an engaging and heart felt chronicle by The Jewish War Josephus,1981-09-17 Josephus account of a war marked by treachery and atrocity is a superbly detailed and evocative record of the Jewish rebellion against Rome between AD 66 and 70 Originally a rebel leader Josephus changed sides after he was captured to become a Rome appointed negotiator and so was uniquely placed to observe these turbulent events from the siege of Jerusalem to the final heroic resistance and mass suicides at Masada His account provides much of what we know about the history of the Jews under Roman rule with vivid portraits of such key figures as the Emperor Vespasian and Herod the Great Often self justifying and divided in its loyalties The Jewish War nevertheless remains one of the most immediate accounts of war its heroism and its horrors ever written The Wars of the Jews Or History of the Destruction of Jerusalem Flavius Josephus,2017-05-24 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Wars of the Jews Flavius Josephus,1839

The Great Roman-Jewish War Flavius Josephus, 2012-07-20

An eyewitness account of the Jewish revolt against the Roman Empire from AD 66-70 provides an essential background for an understanding of the beginnings of both Christianity and modern Judaism

JOSEPHUS Flavius Josephus, 2022-03-26

Josephus was born Joseph Ben Mattathias in 37 C.E. in Jerusalem of a priestly and royal family. He excelled in his studies of Jewish law and studied with the Sadducees, Pharisees, and the Essenes, eventually aligning himself with the Pharisees. In 62 C.E. he went to Rome to free some imprisoned priests. After accomplishing this mission through the intercession of Nero's wife Poppaea, he returned to Jerusalem in 65 C.E. to find the country in revolt against Rome. Although Josephus had deep misgivings about the revolt, it became inevitable due to reasons he discusses in his history: primarily the abuses of the Romans, this spurred the growth of fanatical Messianic Jewish movements which believed that the world was coming to an end shortly. In 66 C.E. the Masada was seized by the Zealots, and the Romans were on the march. Josephus was appointed the commander of Galilee. Josephus had to fight a defensive war against overwhelming force while refereeing internecine squabbles in the Jewish ranks. In 67 C.E. Josephus and other rebels were cornered in a cave during the siege of Jotapata and took a suicide pact. However, Josephus survived and was taken hostage by the Romans led by Vespasian. Josephus shrewdly reinterpreted the Messianic prophecies. He predicted that Vespasian would become the ruler of the entire world. Josephus joined the Romans for which he was branded a traitor. He acted as consultant to the Romans and a go-between with the revolutionaries. Unable to convince the rebels to surrender, Josephus ended up watching the second destruction of the Temple and the defeat of the Jewish nation. His prophecy became true in 68 C.E. when Nero committed suicide and Vespasian became Caesar. As a result, Josephus was freed, he moved to Rome and became a Roman citizen, taking the Vespasian family name. Flavius Vespasian commissioned Josephus to write a history of the war, which he finished in 78 C.E. the Jewish War. His second major work, the Antiquities of the Jews, was completed in 93 C.E. He wrote Against Apion in about 96 100 C E and The Life of Josephus his autobiography about 100 He died shortly after Despite his ambivalent role Josephus was an eyewitness to history and his writings are considered authoritative These texts are key to understanding a pivotal point in world history which has tragic repercussions even to this day The Wars of the Jews Or History of the Destruction of Jerusalem - Scholar's Choice Edition Flavius Josephus,2015-02-16 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Wars of the Jews Josephus,2015-12-05 Titus Flavius Josephus 37 circa 100 was a 1st century Roman Jewish historian and hagiographer of priestly and royal ancestry who recorded Jewish history with special emphasis on the 1st century AD and the First Jewish Roman War which resulted in the Destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD He has been credited by many as recording some of the earliest history of Jesus Christ outside of the gospels this being an item of contention among historians Josephus was a law observant Jew who believed in the compatibility of Judaism and Graeco Roman thought commonly referred to as Hellenistic Judaism His most important works were The Wars of the Jews c 75 AD and Antiquities of the Jews c 94 AD Josephus also wrote an autobiography of his life which was so distinguished that the Romans awarded him citizenship The Wars of the Jews [Christmas Summary Classics] Flavius Josephus,2014-01-04 Christmas Summary Classics This series contains summary of Classic books such as Emma Arne Arabian Nights Pride and prejudice Tower of London Wealth of Nations etc Each book is specially crafted after reading complete book in less than 30 pages One who wants to get joy of book reading especially in very less time can go for it About The Book DAVID CHRISTIE MURRAY The Way of the World David Christie Murray was born at West Bromwich England April 13 1847 and began his journalistic career at Birmingham In 1873 he moved to London and joined the staff of the Daily News and in 1878 he was correspondent of the Times and the Scotsman in the Russo Turkish war He now began to transfer his abundant experience of life to the pages of fiction His first novel A Life s Atonement was published in 1880 and was followed a year later by Joseph s Coat In The Way of the World published in 1884 his art as a story teller and his keen observation of men and manners were displayed as strikingly as in any of his later works several of which were written in collaboration with other authors Altogether he produced over thirty volumes of short stories and novels single handed At the end of last century he emerged
