Author of The Female Eunuch

The Whole Woman Germaine Greer

Diane Negra, Su Holmes

The Whole Woman Germaine Greer:

The Whole Woman Germaine Greer, 1999 Thirty years after The Female Eunuch galvanized the women's liberation movement Germaine Greer launches a fiery sequel assessing the state of womanhood and proclaiming that the time has come to get angry again With passionate rhetoric unique authority and outrageous humor The Whole Woman reveals how women have been sideswiped and sidetracked in the quest for liberation duped into settling for an ersatz equality Greer argues that women have come a long way in the past three decades but that innumerable forms of insidious discrimination and exploitation persist in every area of life from the care of the body to the care of the household from the workplace to the marketplace She startles us with her demonstration that the oft repeated claim that women can have it all is merely a pacifying illusion that things are getting worse and that action is necessary now The Whole Woman is a shattering critique of the complacency and denial that have replaced feminist determination and militancy and of a society that has done little to maintain the momentum for change It is also a call to arms forceful and impossible to ignore

Making Sense of Women's Lives Michelle Plott, Lauri Umansky, 2000 Making Sense of Women's Lives presents a wide range of writings about women's lives in the United States Michele Plott and Lauri Umansky have drawn on their experiences as both students and professors to assemble the collection Seeking to provide as full a sampling from a diverse and intellectually vibrant field as one volume permits the editors have also chosen writing that makes an enjoyable read A few of the selections here represent the undisputed classics of the field More of them constitute simply the works drawn from academic and nonacademic sources alike that could make a difference in understanding what it means to be female in America Making Sense of Women's Lives is intended as the primary text in Women's Studies courses With that usage in mind Plott and Umansky have provided brief introductions to each article to help students understand the author's perspectives Thought and discussion questions follow each selection The book contains as well numerous Flash Exercises suggestions for class exercises and activities The editors have used these activities in their courses over the past decade in conjunction with readings in this volume and have found that the full complement of materials coalesces into an intellectually powerful introduction to Women's Studies A Collegiate Press book

Voices of the Women's Health Movement, Volume 2 Barbara Seaman, Laura Eldridge, 2012-02-14 An unprecedented and definitive collection of rabble rousing writings on women's health Voices of the Women's Health Movement explores a range of provocative topics from reproductive rights to sexuality to motherhood Trail blazing advocate Barbara Seaman and health activist Laura Eldridge bring the revolutionary ideas of several generations together in this powerful new book celebrating women's bodies and women's voices The more than two hundred contributors include Jennifer Baumgardner Susan Brownmiller Phyllis Chesler Angela Y Davis Barbara Ehrenreich Germaine Greer Shulamith Firestone Charlotte Perkins Gilman Erica Jong Molly Haskell Shere Hite Susie Orbach Judith Rossner Alix Kates Shulman Gloria Steinem Sojourner Truth Rebecca Walker Naomi Wolf and many others With Voices of the Women's Health Movement for the first time every woman and girl can experience in one place the powerful history of stirring words and strong female perspectives that have inspired countless women to take control of their health and their lives Volume Two highlights include influential writings on sex rape and violence against women body image informed consent self help gynecology patient advocacy and the mind body connection

The Rise and Triumph of the Modern Self Carl R. Trueman, 2020-10-26 Modern culture is obsessed with identity Since the landmark Obergefell v Hodges Supreme Court decision in 2015 sexual identity has dominated both public discourse and cultural trends and yet no historical phenomenon is its own cause From Augustine to Marx various views and perspectives have contributed to the modern understanding of self In The Rise and Triumph of the Modern Self Carl Trueman carefully analyzes the roots and development of the sexual revolution as a symptom rather than the cause of the human search for identity This timely exploration of the history of thought behind the sexual revolution teaches readers about the past brings clarity to the present and gives guidance for the future as Christians navigate the culture's ever changing search for identity

The Female Eunuch Germaine Greer, 2024-01-17 The publication of Germaine Greer's The Female Eunuch in 1970 was a landmark event raising eyebrows and ire while creating a shock wave of recognition in women around the world with its steadfast assertion that sexual liberation is the key to women's liberation Today Greer's searing examination of the oppression of women in contemporary society is both an important historical record of where we've been and a shockingly relevant treatise on what still remains to be achieved

The Whole Woman by Germain Greer Llewellyn Johns, Germaine Greer, 2001

In the Limelight and Under the Microscope Diane Negra, Su Holmes, 2011-03-17 This timely collection explores the politics of female celebrity across a range of contemporary and historical media contexts Amidst concerns about the apparent decline in the currency of modern fame famous for being famous as well as debates about the shifting parameters of public private visibility it is female celebrities who are positioned as the most active discursive terrain This collection seeks to interrogate such phenomena by forging a greater conceptual theoretical and historical dialogue between celebrity studies and critical gender studies It takes as its starting point the understanding that female celebrity is a particularly fraught cultural phenomenon with ideological and industrial implications that warrant careful scrutiny In moving across case studies from the 19th century to the present day this book works from the assumption that the case study should play a crucial role in generating debate about the dialogue between past and present and the individual essays seek to reflect this spirit of enquiry

Claiming Space for Australian Women's Writing Devaleena Das, Sanjukta Dasgupta, 2017-06-29 This volume explores the subterfuges strategies and choices that Australian women writers have navigated in order to challenge patriarchal stereotypes and assert themselves as writers of substance Contextualized within the pioneering efforts of white Aboriginal and immigrant Australian women in initiating an alternative literary tradition the text captures a wide range of multiracial Australian women authors insightful reflections on crucial issues such as war and silent mourning emergence of a Australian national heroine racial purity and Aboriginal motherhood communism and activism feminist rivalry sexual transgressions autobiography and art of letter writing city space and female subjectivity lesbianism gender implications of spatial categories placement and displacement dwelling and travel location and dislocation and female body politics Claiming Space for Australian Women's Writing tracks Australian women authors varied journeys across cultural political and racial borders in the center of contemporary political discourse

Women and New Labour Claire Annesley, Francesca Gains, Kirstein Rummery, 2007-06-22 Although there is a growing body of international literature on the feminisation of politics and the policy process and as New Labour's term of office progresses a rapidly growing series of texts around New Labour's politics and policies until now no one text has conducted an analysis of New Labour's politics and policies from a gendered perspective despite the fact that New Labour have set themselves up to specifically address women's issues and attract women voters This book fills that gap in an interesting and timely way Women and New Labour will be a valuable addition to both feminist and mainstream scholarship in the social sciences particularly in political science social policy and economics Instead of focusing on traditionally feminist areas of politics and policy such as violent crime against women the authors opt to focus on three case study areas of mainstream policy economic policy foreign policy and welfare policy from a gendered perspective The analytical framework provided by the editors yields generalisable insights that will outlast New Labour's third term Trouble and Strife, 1999

Whitefella Jump Up Germaine Greer, 2004 Race relations are one of the most fraught issues in the world Almost everywhere in the world where different races rub against each other there is racism and friction The problem is most acute with displaced indigenous people White Australia with the history of its terrible treatment of the Aborigines is an extreme case study In this brilliant essay Germaine Greer shows how it could should and must be different The problem is not the Aborigines but the settler society and what it has done to the country She shows how Australians must embrace their aboriginality By extension the argument applies to the whole world and to the unequal relationships between people But as always with Germaine Greer it is argued with wit humour anger passion and superbly memorable prose Germaine Greer is worth reading on any subject she is at her most powerful and polemical when faced with real wrongs that need righting

The New Yorker, 1999 Life in the Flesh Adam G. Cooper, 2008 Life in the Flesh offers a new spiritual philosophy of the body contrasting sources from the Christian tradition with contemporary voices in philosophy and theology The Tablet, 1999 The international Catholic weekly Raise the Lanterns High Lakshmi Persaud, 2004 On the eve of her arranged marriage Vasti discovers that she is due to marry the rapist she saw in a sugar cane field years earlier A horrific dilemma befalls her she can either speak out defy convention and bring the family name in disrepute or submit silently to her fate The emotional strain is too much the bride collapses and while unconscious travels in a dream from her home in 1960s Trinidad back to the 18th century city of Jyotika in North India Back cover The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2001 Harvard Journal of Law & Gender, 2006 Festival, 1999 Soundings, 1999 The
