The Woods Of Ireland A History 700 1800:

The Woods of Ireland Nigel Everett, 2014 Includes images of art by William Ashford John James Barralet George Barret John Butts Anthony Chearnley Anthony van Dyck Jonathan Fisher Thomas Gainsborough Marcus Gheeraerts II James Gillray William Gilpin Frederick Heppenheimer Wenceslaus Hollar Giles King Simon Marmion Boucicaut Master William Pars Francis Place Thomas Roberts Paul Sandby Herman van Swanevelt William Henry Toms Francis Wheatley A History of Irish Literature and the Environment Malcolm Sen, 2022-07-28 From Gaelic annals and medieval poetry to contemporary Irish literature A History of Irish Literature and the Environment examines the connections between the Irish environment and Irish literary culture Themes such as Ireland's island ecology the ecological history of colonial era plantation and deforestation the Great Famine cultural attitudes towards animals and towards the land the postcolonial politics of food and energy generation and the Covid 19 pandemic this book shows how these factors determine not only a history of the Irish environment but also provide fresh perspectives from which to understand and analyze Irish literature An international team of contributors provides a comprehensive analysis of Irish literature to show how the literary has always been deeply engaged with environmental questions in Ireland a crucial new perspective in an age of climate crisis A History of Irish Literature and the Environment reveals the socio cultural racial and gendered aspects embedded in questions of the Irish environment The Irish tower house Victoria L. McAlister, 2019-07-04 This book examines the social role of castles in late medieval and early modern Ireland It uses a multidisciplinary methodology to uncover the lived experience of this historic culture demonstrating the interconnectedness of society economics and the environment Of particular interest is the revelation of how concerned pre modern people were with participation in the economy and the exploitation of the natural environment for economic gain Material culture can shed light on how individuals shaped spaces around themselves and tower houses thanks to their pervasiveness in medieval and modern landscapes represent a unique resource Castles are the definitive building of the European Middle Ages meaning that this book will be of great interest to scholars of both history and archaeology No Wood, No Kingdom Keith Pluymers, 2021-05-21 In early modern England wood scarcity was a widespread concern Royal officials artisans and common people expressed their fears in laws petitions and pamphlets in which they debated the severity of the problem speculated on its origins and proposed solutions to it No Wood No Kingdom explores these conflicting attempts to understand the problem of scarcity and demonstrates how these ideas shaped land use forestry and the economic vision of England's earliest colonies Popular accounts have often suggested that deforestation served as a push for English colonial expansion Keith Pluymers shows that wood scarcity in England rather than a problem of absolute supply and demand resulted from social conflict over the right to define and regulate resources difficulties obtaining accurate information and competing visions for trade forestry and the English landscape Domestic scarcity claims did encourage schemes to develop wood dependent enterprises in the colonies but in practice colonies competed with domestic enterprises rather than supplanting them Moreover close studies of colonial governments and the actions of individual landholders in Ireland Virginia Bermuda and Barbados demonstrate that colonists experimented with different often competing approaches to colonial woods and trees including efforts to manage them as long term resources albeit ones that nonetheless brought significant transformations to the land No Wood No Kingdom explores the efforts to knot together woods around the Atlantic basin as resources for an English empire and the deep underlying conflicts and confusion that largely frustrated those plans It speaks to historians of early modern Europe early America and the Atlantic World but also offers key insights on early modern resource politics forest management and political ecology of interest to readers in the environmental humanities and social sciences as well as those interested in colonialism or economic history Irish Materialisms Colleen Taylor,2023-12-08 Irish Materialisms The Nonhuman and the Making of Colonial Ireland 1690 1830 is the first book to apply recent trends in new materialist criticism to Ireland It radically shifts familiar colonial stereotypes of the feminized racialized cottier according to the Irish peasantry s subversive entanglement with nonhuman materiality Each of the chapters engages a focused case study of an everyday object in colonial Ireland coins flax spinning wheels mud and pigs to examine how each object s unique materiality contributed to the colonial ideology of British paternalism and afforded creative Irish expression The main argument of Irish Materialisms is its methodology of reading literature through the agency of materiality and nonhuman narrative in order to gain a more egalitarian and varied understanding of colonial experience Irish Materialisms proves that new materialism holds powerful postcolonial potential Through an intimate understanding of the materiality Irish peasants handled on a daily basis this book presents a new portrait of Irish character that reflects greater empowerment resistance and expression in the oppressed Irish than has been previously recognized

Ireland William Laffan,Christopher P. Monkhouse,Leslie Fitzpatrick,2015-01-01 A sweeping survey of the arts of Ireland spanning 150 years and an astonishing range of artists and media This groundbreaking book captures a period in Ireland s history when countless foreign architects artisans and artists worked side by side with their native counterparts Nearly all of the works within this remarkable volume many of them never published before have been drawn from North American collections This catalogue accompanies the first exhibition to celebrate the Irish as artists collectors and patrons over 150 years of Ireland s sometimes turbulent history Featuring the work of a wide range of artists known and unknown and a diverse array of media the catalogue also includes an impressive assembly of essays by a pre eminent group of international experts working on the art and cultural history of Ireland Major essays discuss the subjects of the Irish landscape and tourism Irish country houses and Dublin s role as a center of culture and commerce Also included are numerous shorter essays covering a full spectrum of topics and artworks including bookbinding ceramics furniture glass mezzotints miniatures musical instruments pastels silver and textiles Making Ireland Modern Enda Delaney,2025-10-02 A provocative and original reinterpretation of modern Irish history There is a widespread misconception that Ireland became modern much later than its neighbours in the 1960s and 1970s This is grounded in several enduring stereotypes and caricatures of Ireland as a timeless and unchanging land of saints and scholars of its society and culture in the long nineteenth century as puritanical regressive or archaic of Gaelic language and culture as backward or inward looking in contrast to a modern English counterpart and of the island as natural and rural in the face of the urban and technological progress of modernity Drawing on an extensive range of sources from poetry and novels to contemporary historical documents acclaimed historian Enda Delaney here offers a reinterpretation of Ireland s encounter with modernity that corrects these stereotypes By situating the island s history between 1780 and 1916 within its broader European global and colonial contexts he demonstrates that Ireland s pathway to modernity was not inevitable belated or uni directional over a complex and centuries long process it was made modern and in its own distinctive way This was related to but distinct from Ireland s complicated colonial relationship with Britain and played out in the broader contexts of globalisation and the rise of capitalism And at the heart of this history are the Irish people themselves both those who lived on the island and the millions of those who left during this period and made their lives in Britain America Australia and beyond who made sense of modernity in a variety of conflicting ways and in so doing sought to shape their own destinies and adapt the old ways of doing things in the face of relentless waves of progress Changes in values consciousness and beliefs interacted with broader social political and cultural revolutions to create a distinctive experience of becoming modern The result is a bold and wide ranging new history of modern Ireland that restores agency to those who lived and made its history raising important and timely questions about modernity globalisation modern history and post colonialism

Johnston-Liik,2015 Exploring the History and Heritage of Irish Landscapes Patrick J. Duffy,2007 This book highlights the principal themes and elements in the making of the landscape and the sources which can assist historians and historical geographers in studying and understanding Irish landscape history Major and local sources relating to the natural environment cultural landscapes and the built environment are explored The book also looks at representations of landscapes in literature painting and other artistic sources which can provide insights into the nature of real and imagined worlds of the past The ultimate source which features prominently throughout this study is the landscape itself on which generations before us have inscribed the marks of their presence in fields farms houses villages towns roads lanes and the infrastructure of settlement

BOOK JACKET Ireland and Anglo-Irish Relations Since 1800: Union to the land war Neil C. Fleming,Alan O'Day,2008 This landmark series of three volumes brings together selected essays from leading and specialist journals that have made a significant or original contribution to Irish historiography Each volume contains a range of articles reappraising the major political themes of the period but also offering new interpretations on social economic cultural and religious history as well as women s history and historical geography Introductions to each volume explain the specific and wider significance of the articles
