Typhoon And Other Tales Oxford Worlds Classics:

Typhoon and Other Tales Joseph Conrad, 2008-08-14 The four tales in this volume share autobiographical origins in Conrad's experience at sea and his exile from Poland. They vividly present Conrad's preoccupation with the theme of solidarity challenged from without by the elements and from within by human doubts and fears. This revised edition uses the English first edition texts and has a new chronology and bibliography. Joseph Conrad and the Reader A. Acheraïou, 2009-10-21 Joseph Conrad and the Reader is the first book fully devoted to Conrad's relation to the reader, visual theory and authorship. This challenging study proposes new approaches to modern literary criticism and deftly examines the limits of deconstructionist theories, introducing groundbreaking new theoretical concepts of reading and reception. Heart of Darkness and Other Tales Joseph Conrad, 2002 Regarded as Conrad's finest tale, these stories tell of Marlow's journey up the Congo River to meet Mr. Kurtz. This volume also includes An Outpost of Progress, Karain, and Youth in a revised edition using the English first edition texts and with new chronology and bibliography. Conrad and Gide Russell West-Pavlov, 2023-04-17 This study examines the relations between the work of the Polish English novelist Joseph Conrad and the French Nobel Prize winner Andr  Gide. Gide's translation of Conrad's Typhoon is read as a work belonging paradoxically to the oeuvres of both writers where their respective preoccupations meet with illuminating results. Focusing also on other major works by Conrad and Gide, the study suggests that the intertextual and personal interaction between these two masters of 20th Century fiction was governed by processes of identification and projection, conflict between master and disciple, and a consequent resistant reading of texts and confrontation with linguistic and cultural heterogeneity. Issues of translation theory, psychoanalysis, and intertextuality are brought together to offer a glimpse of a possible dialogue between literature and ethics. This study will be of interest to students and researchers in English, French, and Comparative Literature. Travel, Modernism and Modernity Robert Burden, 2016-03-09 Focusing on the significance of travel in Joseph Conrad, E. M. Forster, D. H. Lawrence, Henry James, and Edith Wharton, Robert Burden shows how travel enabled a new consciousness of mobility and borders during the modernist period. For these authors, Burden suggests, travel becomes a narrative paradigm and dominant trope by which they explore questions of identity and otherness related to deep-seated concerns with the crisis of national cultural identity. He pays particular attention to the important distinction between travel and tourism at the same time that he attends to the slippage between seeing and sightseeing, between the local character and the stereotype, between art and kitsch, and between older and newer ways of storytelling in the representational crisis of modernism. Burden argues that the greater awareness of cultural difference that characterizes both the travel writing and fiction of these expatriate writers became a defining feature of literary modernism, resulting in a consciousness of cultural difference that challenged the ethnographic project of empire. Magritte Alex Danchev, 2021-11-30 The first major biography of the pathbreaking, perpetually influential surrealist artist and iconoclast whose inspiration can be seen in everyone from Jasper Johns to Beyonc .

by the celebrated biographer of Cézanne and Braque In this thought provoking life of René Magritte 1898-1967 Alex Danchev makes a compelling case for Magritte as the single most significant purveyor of images to the modern world Magritte's surreal sensibility deadpan melodrama and fine tuned outrageousness have become an inescapable part of our visual landscape through such legendary works as The Treachery of Images Ceci n'est pas une pipe and his celebrated iterations of Man in a Bowler Hat Danchev explores the path of this highly unconventional artist from his middle class Belgian beginnings to the years during which he led a small brilliant band of surrealists and famously clashed with André Breton to his first major retrospective which traveled to the United States in 1965 and gave rise to his international reputation Using 50 color images and more than 160 black and white illustrations Danchev delves deeply into Magritte's artistic development and the profound questions he raised in his work about the very nature of authenticity This is a vital biography for our time that plumbs the mystery of an iconoclast whose influence can be seen in everyone from Jasper Johns to Beyoncé The Conradian, 1993

Victorian Literature and Culture, 2008 Sexuality and the Erotic in the Fiction of Joseph Conrad Jeremy Hawthorn, 2007-03-01 Awarded third place for The Adam Gillon Book Award in Conrad Studies 2009 The book presents a sustained critique of the interlinked and contradictory views that the fiction of Joseph Conrad is largely innocent of any interest in or concern with sexuality and the erotic and that when Conrad does attempt to depict sexual desire or erotic excitement then this results in bad writing Jeremy Hawthorn argues for a revision of the view that Conrad lacks understanding of and interest in sexuality He argues that the comprehensiveness of Conrad's vision does not exclude a concern with the sexual and the erotic and that this concern is not with the sexual and the erotic as separate spheres of human life but as elements dialectically related to those matters public and political that have always been recognized as central to Conrad's fictional achievement The book will open Conrad's fiction to readings enriched by the insights of critics and theorists associated with Gender Studies and Post colonialism Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 Expulsion and the Nineteenth-century Novel Michiel Heyns, 1994 This lively and original book places the realist novel in the centre of current debates by examining the notion that such novels reinforced existing social structures Includes close readings of authors such as Austen Dickens Eliot Conrad and James Aspects of Conrad's Literary Language Michael A. Lucas, 2000 Why did Joseph Conrad avoid using English except when it came to the arduous task of writing fiction And how do we account for his extensive borrowing from French writers This psycholinguistic examination delves into the creative mind of Conrad in an attempt to decipher his learning and use of three languages Polish French and English Following a trail of syntactical eccentricities and considerable stylistic variations Lucas shows how these features interact to produce Conrad's idiosyncratic style Joseph Conrad Wiesław Krajka, 2009 Contains essays from the Fourth International Joseph Conrad Conference entitled Conrad's Polish Ukrainian Footprints organized by the Centre for Conrad Studies of the English Dept of Maria Curie Skłodowska University and held at Lublin and Kazimierz Dolny June 19-23 2006 Joseph Conrad: The critical
