Maintaining a positive credit history requires frequent monitoring of your credit report and it's very common for one of the three credit bureaus to report multiple errors in your consumer credit file It's critical to keep an eye on your credit report and file multiple disputes but you need to be equipped with the most up to date information to know how to beat them at their own game Because your credit score influences every financial transaction you make on a daily basis including your career your ability to rent or buy property obtain financing and more even seemingly harmless errors on your credit report can have a significant impact on all of these factors Major mistakes on your credit report can cost you hundreds or even thousands of dollars but they are easily avoidable with the right information and advice
