Sadow, 2024-04-15 The first anthology of its kind I Am of the Tribe of Judah Poems from Jewish Latin America brings together poetry from the Mexican border to the tip of South America Originally written in Spanish Portuguese Yiddish Ladino Casteidish and Hebrew these poems have been translated into English many for the first time by a group of prize winning translators This multilingual collection looks at the tradition across more than five hundred years featuring poems that exalt being Jewish whether Ashkenazi or Sephardic and poems that express humor and satire Conversely there are poems in response to anti Semitism and poems of exile of protest and of the Holocaust In a different mode there are wondrous poems on mysticism and Kabbalah The book includes an insightful introduction and historical background by world renowned literary and social critic Ilan Stavans professor at Amherst College Somebody Is Walking on Your Grave Mariana Enriquez, 2025-09-30 An enchanting highly personal tour of some of the most iconic cemeteries of the world part travelogue part memoir part excursions through death by the author of Our Share of Night and queen of horror Los Angeles Times Not a travelogue so much as a grave a logue Somebody is Walking on Your Grave is an exuberant witty wander among the dead You could not have a better friend to take you by the hand and lead you for a long trapeze among tilting tombstones dank crypts and chilling history Joe Hill Enriquez knows cemeteries are the repositories of life s pain and beauty I felt more alive as I read Caitlin Doughty New York Times bestselling author of Smoke Gets in Your Eyes And Other Lessons from the Crematory An eccentric and enlightening peek into how memorialization happens across the world Publishers Weekly starred review Fascinating Enriquez hides a celebration of life in a book about death Booklist starred review One of Publishers Weekly s Top 10 New Releases of the Fall A Most Anticipated Book of the Fall Los Angeles Times Literary Hub Ms Magazine Bustle Book Riot Publishers Lunch Cemeteries have great stories and sometimes I steal some for my books Mariana Enriquez called by The New York Times a sorceress of horror has been fascinated by the haunting beauty of cemeteries since she was a teenager She has visited them frequently a goth flaneur taking notes on her aesthetic obsession as she walks among the headstones where dying seems much more interesting than being alive But when the body of a friend s mother who was disappeared during Argentina s military dictatorship was found in a common grave Enriquez began to examine more deeply the complex meanings of cemeteries and where our bodies come to rest In this rich book of essays excursions through death she calls them Enriquez travels through North and South America Europe and Australia visiting Paris s catacombs Prague s Old Jewish Cemetery New Orleans s aboveground mausoleums Buenos Aires s opulent Recoleta and more Enriquez investigates each cemetery's history and architecture its saints and ghosts its caretakers and visitors and of course its dead Weaving personal stories with reportage interviews myths hauntology and more Somebody Is Walking on Your Grave is memoir channeled through Enriquez's passion for cemeteries revealing as much about her own life and unique sensibility as the graveyards and tombstones she tours Fascinating spooky and unlike anything else Enriquez's first work of nonfiction translated by the award winning Megan McDowell is as original and memorable as the stories and novels for which she's become so beloved and admired
