Undead War Other Stories:

Living with the Living Dead Greg Garrett, 2017-05-01 In Living with the Living Dead Greg Garrett shows that the zombie apocalypse has become an archetypal narrative for the contemporary world in part because zombies can represent a variety of global threats from terrorism to Ebola from economic uncertainty to mental illness But paradoxically this narrative also offers human beings a chance to find emotional and spiritual comfort these apocalyptic stories about individuals facing the imminent prospect of grisly death also offer us wisdom about living in community present us with real world ethical problems and invite us into a conversation about what it means to survive The Undead at War (and Other Stories) Randall Schanze, 2015-12-06 The second full length collection of short stories from Randall Schanze The Undead at War And Other Stories runs the full range of literature from comedy to drama from straight ahead space adventure on through a new twist on Transhumanism which SF author Larry Niven called Highly Entertaining The anthology includes three stories set in the misleadingly named Undead universe two stories and one novella from the also misleadingly named Redneck universe one unrelated short story and several bits of interesting lyrics poetry between the tales Depictions of Pestilence in Literature, Media, and Art Kübra Baysal, 2023-01-24 This volume fills a gap in studies of literature media culture and art by exploring depictions of contagious diseases in different genres since the dawn of humanity and compiling a history of such representations of pestilence from a post human and environmental perspective Indulging in humankind's struggle with calamities throughout history the collection discusses several media that portray real or imagined futures based on past and present facts In today's world which is stricken with global warming and the COVID 19 pandemic these narratives termed plague literature hold a crucial position in guiding humanity towards a greater ecological awareness The book will appeal to scholars students organisations and individuals who are interested in studies of literature history media art and environmental humanities The Undead at War (and Other Stories) Kevin Long, 2012-12-06 The second full length collection of short stories from Kevin Long The Undead at War And Other Stories runs the full range of literature from comedy to drama from straight ahead space adventure on through a new twist on Transhumanism which SF author Larry Niven called Highly Entertaining The anthology includes three stories set in the misleadingly named Undead universe two stories and one novella from the also misleadingly named Redneck universe one unrelated short story and several bits of interesting lyrics poetry between the tales Theorising the Contemporary Zombie Scott Hamilton, Conor Heffernan, 2022-05-15 Zombies have become an increasingly popular object of research in academic studies and of course in popular media Over the past decade they have been employed to explain mathematical equations vortex phenomena in astrophysics the need for improved laws issues within higher education and even the structure of human societies Despite the surge of interest in the zombie as a critical metaphor no coherent theoretical framework for studying the zombie actually exists Addressing this current gap in the literature Theorising the Contemporary Zombie defines zombiism as a means of theorising and examining various issues of society in any given era by immersing those social issues within the destabilising context of apocalyptic crisis and applying this definition the volume considers issues including gender sexuality family literature health popular culture and extinction

Medialogies David R. Castillo, William Egginton, 2017-01-01 We are living in a time of inflationary media While technological change has periodically altered and advanced the ways humans process and transmit knowledge for the last 100 years the media with which we produce transmit and record ideas have multiplied in kind speed and power Saturation in media is provoking a crisis in how we perceive and understand reality Media become inflationary when the scope of their representation of the world outgrows the confines of their culture's prior grasp of reality We call the resulting concept of reality that emerges the culture's medialogy Medialogies offers a highly innovative approach to the contemporary construction of reality in cultural political and economic domains Castillo and Egginton both luminary scholars combine a very accessible style with profound theoretical analysis relying not only on works of philosophy and political theory but also on novels Hollywood films and mass media phenomena The book invites us to reconsider the way reality is constructed and how truth sovereignty agency and authority are understood from the everyday philosophical and political points of view A powerful analysis of actuality with its roots in early modernity this work is crucial to understanding reality in the information age
