Understand Roman Civilization: Teach Yourself Paula James, 2012-07-06 This remarkable and original introduction to Roman civilization starts with a tour of Rome and uses real sights which you can visit today as a starting point for discussions of all aspects of Roman life From art and architecture to politics and propaganda this is a unique and accessible guide to the civilization that shaped the world as it is today Readers will gain new insights into the Roman past its people its psychology and its society and they will feel encouraged and confident to visit Rome themselves or to read its most important texts Derek Mahon: A Retrospective Nicholas Grene, Tom Walker, 2024-09-17 Derek Mahon 1941 2020 is widely recognized as one of the most important Irish poets of his generation This collection of new critical essays offers an important retrospective assessment of the nature of his poetic achievement Bringing together many leading scholars of modern and contemporary Irish poetry including a notable number of accomplished poet critics its contributors range widely across Mahon's body of work Their essays offer fresh considerations of the biographical geographical and literary contexts that shaped his poetic voice This includes paying attention not only to more familiar influences but also to previously little considered interlocutors The stylistic and formal achievement of his voice is re-evaluated in ways that range from attentive close readings to considerations of his controversial practice of self-revision and his engagements with music and experiments in translation The politics of a poet often misleadingly considered apolitical are also reframed to take in the engagements of his early work through to the ecocritical commitment of his later poetry Indeed a notable aspect of this book is the consideration it gives to all the phases of Mahon's career As a whole the collection opens up many new ways of reading and understanding Mahon's important body of work Building School Culture One Week at a Time Jeffrey Zoul, 2013-08-06

Use Friday Focus memos to motivate and engage your staff every week and help create a school culture focused on the growth of students and teachers. Easy to understand and implement. Friday Focus memos offer an effective and efficient way to improve student learning, staff development, and school culture from within. Written by educational consultant and former principal of two award-winning schools, Jeffrey Zoul, these memos focus on topics such as active learning, high expectations, gratitude, test preparation, and more. Zoul provides 37 teaching and learning memos, one for each week of the school year, for principals and other administrators to reproduce and circulate among their staff. Zoul prefaces each memo with stories from his experiences as a teacher, coach, and assistant principal in the K-12 levels. You can also write your own memos with guidance on possible topics and teacher takeaways.
