Supplement A determinedly brilliant new book London Review of Books Contemporary Influences of C. G. Jung's Thought Andrew Kuzmicki, Ilona Błocian, 2018-11-26 The book is a volume of the collected works of sixteen different authors They reflect the contemporary meaning of C G Jung s theory on many fields of scientific activity and in a different cultural context Japanese South American and North American as well as European English Italian and Polish The authors consider a specific milieu of Jung s theory and his influence or possible dialogue with contemporary ideas and scientific activity A major task of the book will be to outline the contemporary direct or indirect usefulness and applicability of Jung s ideas at the beginning of the twenty first century while simultaneously making a critical review of this theory Reasoning With Who We Are Mark Redhead, 2014-04-04 Public reasoning a manner of democratic deliberation that can generate meaningful conceptions of justice the collective good and other unifying political values among individuals subscribing to varied and contrasting doctrines has been a perennial concern among political philosophers from historical thinkers such as Immanuel Kant to contemporary theorists like John Rawls and Jurgen Habermas In this ambitious study Mark Redhead explores versions of public reasoning in the works of six of the most important voices in contemporary political theory Alasdair MacIntyre Charles Taylor Hannah Arendt Seyla Benhabib Michel Foucault and William E Connolly He identifies an important but as of yet unappreciated version of public reasoning one that provides creative and effective responses to questions at the forefront of liberal democratic political thought human rights secularity and global governance Algernon Swinburne and Walter Pater Sarah Glendon Lyons, 2017-07-05 How did literary aestheticism emerge in Victorian Britain with its competing models of religious doubt and visions of secularisation For Lyons the aestheticism developed and progressively revised by Algernon Charles Swinburne 1837 1909 and Walter Pater 1839 1894 illuminates the contradictory impulses of modern secularism on the one hand a desire to cast itself as a form of neutrality or disinterestedness on the other a desire to affirm this world as the place of human flourishing or even enchantment The standard narrative of a crisis of faith does not do justice to the fissured uncertain quality of Victorian visions of secularisation Precisely because it had the status of a confusing hypothesis rather than a self evident reality it provoked not only dread and melancholia but also forms of fantasy Within this context Lyons gives a fundamentally new account of the aims and nature of Victorian aestheticism taking as a focus its deceptively simple claim that art is for art s sake first of all Bonhoeffer's Religionless Christianity in Its Christological Context Peter Hooton, 2020-02-06 The German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer understood Western civilization to be approaching a completely religionless age to which Christians must respond and adapt This book explores Bonhoeffer s own response to this challenge his concept of a religionless Christianity and its place in his broader theology It does this first by situating the concept in a present day Western socio historical context It then considers Bonhoeffer s understanding and critique of religion before examining the religionless Christianity of his final months in the light of his earlier Christ centred theology The place of mystery paradox and wholeness in Bonhoeffer s thinking is also given careful attention and non religious interpretation is taken seriously as an ongoing task The book aspires to present religionless Christianity as a lucid and persuasive contemporary theology and does this always in the presence of the question which inspired Bonhoeffer's theological journey from its academic beginnings to its very deliberately lived end the question Who is Jesus Christ

Sacred and Secular Tensions in Higher Education Michael D. Waggoner, 2011-03 Sacred and secular worldviews have long held a place in U S higher education although non religious perspectives have usually been privileged in the modern era This book illustrates the importance of cultivating multiple worldviews

American Literature in Transition, 1876-1910: Volume 4 Lindsay V. Reckson, 2022-08-18 Addressing US literature from 1876 to 1910 this volume aims to account for the period's immense transformations while troubling the ideology of progress that underwrote much of its self understanding This volume queries the various forms and formations of post Reconstruction American literature It contends that the literature of this period most often referred to as turn of the century might be more productively oriented by the end of Reconstruction and the haunting aftermath of its emancipatory potential than by the logic of temporal and social advance that underwrote the end of the century and the beginning of the Progressive Era Acknowledging that nearly all US literature after 1876 might be described as post Reconstruction the volume invites readers to reframe this period by asking under what terms did post Reconstruction American literature challenge or re consolidate the nation as an affective political and discursive phenomenon And what kind of alternative pasts and futures did it write into existence

The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies Kirsteen Kim, Knud Jørgensen, Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga, 2022-04-18 The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies represents more than a century of scholarship related to the theology history and methodology of the propagation of Christian faith and the engagement of Christians with cultures religions and societies worldwide It contains more than 40 articles by experts from different disciplinary and ecclesial perspectives who are from all continents It not only offers a broad overview of key approaches and issues in mission studies but it also highlights current trends and suggests future developments The Handbook builds on renewed interest in mission studies this century generated by recent key statements on mission from ecumenical evangelical Catholic and Orthodox sources and by a spate of academic works on the topic Western church leaders now apply insights from foreign missions such as inculturation liberation interfaith work and power encounter to today's multicultural societies Meanwhile there are new initiatives in mission from the Majority World where most Christians live so that sending is not only from the west to the rest but from everywhere to everywhere Therefore this volume aims to reflect the voices of the receivers of mission as well as its protagonists and to raise awareness of new movements In a time of growing recognition of religions more generally this work examines and theorizes the missional dimensions of the world's largest religion its agendas growth outreach role in public life effect on cultures relevance for development and its approaches to other communities

Pilgrimage into God Sicco Claus, 2023-04-01 Pilgrimage into God A Study of John Main's Meditation Oriented Spirituality is a comprehensive investigation of the heritage of the Benedictine monk John Main 1926 1982 This founder of a worldwide movement for Christian meditation understands meditation as an intentional transcending of all mental processes Contrary to popular opinion which associates meditation uniquely with Eastern traditions Main considers meditative practice to be essential and central to Christian faith This study not only explores Main s views on practise but also looks into his theology his understanding of spiritual growth and the ideal contexts for achieving such growth It does this by critically situating Main s spiritual teaching within the Christian tradition and exploring its relation to Charles Taylor s interpretation of the modern spiritual condition This study also aims at exploring how Main s heritage may contribute to illuminating Christian spiritual life today Religion and Atheism Anthony

Carroll, Richard Norman, 2016-11-25 Arguments between those who hold religious beliefs and those who do not have been at fever pitch They have also reached an impasse with equally entrenched views held by believer and atheist and even agnostic alike This collection is one of the first books to move beyond this deadlock Specially commissioned chapters address major areas that cut across the debate between the two sides the origin of knowledge objectivity and meaning moral values and the nature of the human person and the good life and the challenge of how to promote honest and fruitful dialogue in the light of the wide diversity of beliefs religious and otherwise Under these broad headings leading figures in the field examine and reflect upon Secular and religious humanism The idea of the sacred The vexed issue of science in both religious and secular accounts of knowledge Spirituality for the godless Non western perspectives on the atheism theism debate A key feature of the collection is a dialogue between Raymond Tallis and Rowan Williams former Archbishop of Canterbury Religion and Atheism Beyond the Divide will interest anyone who is concerned about the clash between the religious and the secular and how to move beyond it as well as students of ethics philosophy of religion and religious studies Provincializing the Bible Norman Jones, 2018-01-29 Why in our supposedly secular age does the Bible feature prominently in so many influential and innovative works of contemporary U S literature More pointedly why would a book indelibly allied with a long history of institutionalized oppressions play a supporting role and not simply as an object of critique in a wide variety of landmark literary representations of marginalized subjectivities The answers to these questions go beyond mere playful re appropriations or subversive resignifications of biblical themes figures and forms This book shows how certain contemporary authors invoke the Bible in ways that undermine clear distinctions between subversive and traditional indeed that undermine clear distinctions between secular and sacred By tracing a key source of such complex literary invocations of the Bible back to William Faulkner s major novels Provincializing the Bible argues that these literary works which might be termed postsecular ironically provincialize the Bible as a means of reevaluating and revalorizing its significance in contemporary American culture Secular Powers Julie E. Cooper, 2024-05-31

Secularism is usually thought to contain the project of self deification in which humans attack God s authority in order to take his place freed from all constraints Julie E Cooper overturns this conception through an incisive analysis of the early modern justifications for secular politics While she agrees that secularism is a means of empowerment she argues that we have misunderstood the sources of secular empowerment and the kinds of strength to which it aspires Contemporary understandings of secularism Cooper contends have been shaped by a limited understanding of it as a shift from vulnerability to power But the works of the foundational thinkers of secularism tell a different story Analyzing the writings of Hobbes Spinoza and Rousseau at the moment of secularity's inception she shows that all three understood that acknowledging one's limitations was a condition of successful self rule And while all three invited humans to collectively build and sustain a political world their invitations did not amount to self deification Cooper establishes that secular politics as originally conceived does not require a choice between power and vulnerability Rather it challenges us today as then to reconcile them both as essential components of our humanity

Religion and Secular Modernity in Russian Christianity, Judaism, and Atheism Ana Siljak, 2024-11-15 Religion and Secular Modernity in Russian Christianity Judaism and Atheism is a multifaceted account of the engagement between religion and the secular in Russia's Christian Jewish and atheist traditions Ana Siljak brings together an interdisciplinary group of leading scholars to present unique perspectives on the secularization dynamic in Russia and the Soviet Union telling stories about theologians sects churches poets and artists From the Jewish Christian priest Alexander Men to the cross dressing poet Zinaida Gippius to the Soviet promoter of Yiddish theater Solomon Mikhoels Religion and Secular Modernity in Russian Christianity Judaism and Atheism gives a voice to a variety of actors who have grappled with the possibilities of faith and unbelief in an industrialized modern and seemingly secular world Now more than ever as one narrative of Russia's religious history dominates official Russian accounts alternative perspectives of the relationship between Russian religion and secularism should be highlighted and emphasized

Religion-State Encounters in Hindu Domains Vineeta Sinha, 2011-04-07 The historical and empirical project presented here is grounded in a desire to theorize religion state relations in the multi ethnic multi religious secular city state of Singapore The core research problematic of this project has emerged out of the confluence of two domains religion law and bureaucracy and religion and colonial encounters This work has two core objectives one to articulate the actual points of engagement between institutions of religion and the state and two to identify the various processes mechanisms and strategies through which relations across these spheres are sustained The thematic foundations of this book rest on disentangling the complex interactions between religious communities individuals and the various manifestations of the Singapore state relationships that are framed within a culture of bureaucracy This is accomplished through a scrutiny of Hindu domains on the island nation state from her identity as part of the Straits Settlements to the present day The empirical and analytical emphases of this book rest on the author's engagement with the realm of Hinduism as it is conceived structured framed and practiced within the context of a strong state in Singapore today Ethnographically the book focusses on Hindu temple management and the observance of Hindu festivals and processions enacted within administrative and bureaucratic frames
