Innovative Approaches to Researching Landscape and Health Catharine Ward Thompson, Peter Aspinall, Simon Bell, 2010-04-23 Our modern lifestyles often cause us to spend more time sitting behind a desk than being active outdoors At the same time our general health is deteriorating The alarming rise in obesity sedentary lifestyles and mental ill health across the developed world has resulted in an urgent desire to understand how the environment in particular the outdoor environment influences health This book addresses the growing interest in salutogenic environments landscapes that support healthy lifestyles and promote well being and the need for innovative methods to research them Drawing on multidisciplinary approaches from environmental psychology health sciences urban design landscape architecture and horticulture it questions how future research can be better targeted to inform policy and practice in health promotion The contributing authors are international experts in researching landscape health and the environment drawn together by OPENspace directors who have a unique reputation in this area This pioneering book is a valuable resource for postgraduate researchers and practitioners in both environmental and health studies

The Beginner's Guide to Starting a Garden Sally Roth, 2025-04-08 Learn how to spend fewer hours and less money on revamping the garden The English Garden The prospect of revamping your yard can be daunting Where do you start How do all the areas come together in a beautiful cohesive way In The Beginner's Guide to Starting a Garden Sally Roth simplifies the process by showing you how to spend fewer hours and a minimal amount of money in the garden by tackling one small area at a time You ll find garden plans for ten unique areas the entryway the shady areas under trees and more that can be linked together over time to create a unified yard and plants that are dependable easy to find and look good year after year You ll also learn the basics of good design which plants offer the most bloom for your buck and how to avoid the most common planting mistakes

Routledge Handbook of Urban Landscape Research Kate Bishop, Linda Corkery, 2022-12-27 Landscape architecture is one of the key professions dedicated to making cities hospitable and healthy places to live work and play while respecting and enhancing the natural environments and landscapes we inhabit This edited collection presents current writing about the pivotal roles that landscape architects play in addressing some of the most pressing problems facing the planet its environments and its populations through their research analysis and speculative practice The book has assembled current writings on recent research structured around five major themes governance power and partnership infrastructure systems and performance environment resilience and climate change people place and design and culture heritage and identity As a collection the chapters demonstrate the diversity of themes and topics that are expanding the scholarly body of knowledge for the discipline and its relevance to the practice of landscape architecture The contributors to this book are academic researchers and practitioners from the discipline of landscape architecture. The chapters draw on their research, teaching and experience as well as analysis of project examples. Fifty-two contributors from the United States, United Kingdom, Sweden, Denmark, the Netherlands, Nigeria, Malaysia, Spain, Colombia, Australia, New Zealand and Canada discuss a diverse range of contemporary themes in urban landscape architecture. Collectively, the contributors demonstrate the breadth of experience, shared concerns and distinct issues that challenge urban landscape architecture and cities in the 21st century.

The Production of Alternative Urban Spaces Jens Kaae Fisker, Letizia Chiappini, Lee Pugalis, Antonella Bruzzese, 2018-10-26. Alternative urban spaces across civic, private and public spheres emerge in response to the great challenges that urban actors are currently confronted with. Labour markets are changing rapidly; the availability of affordable housing is under intensifying pressure; and public spaces have become battlegrounds of urban politics. This edited collection brings together contributors in order to spark an international dialogue about the production of alternative urban spaces through a threefold exploration of alternative spaces of work, dwelling and public life. Seeking out and examining existing alternative urban spaces, the authors identify the elements that provide opportunities to create radically different futures for the world's urban spaces. This volume is the culmination of an international search for alternative practices to dominant modes of capitalist urbanisation, bringing together interdisciplinary, empirically grounded chapters from hot spots in disparate cities around the world. Offering a multidisciplinary perspective, The Production of Alternative Urban Spaces will be of great interest to academics working across the fields of urban sociology, human geography, anthropology, political science and urban planning. It will also be indispensable to any postgraduate students engaged in urban and regional studies.
