Bennett,2010-05-28 I chose the title A Poemers Poemings because it means for me that of someone to whom is always writing about something anything and its odd and catchy at the same time and it s the main title for the series that I am writing in volumes too many to put all into one book I think of my poems all as individual artworks all their own a completeness from start to finish a journey a path a message that will inspire mesmerize intrigue and take you to that deepness that hasn t been felt or known of your own self Allow yourself to think for out there to see what each one is telling you Envision the poem and let yourself see the answers to your own thoughts of these pieces of artworks The Right Path

Taken Terry Lawrence,2009-04-24 The right path taken is a choice anyone can make but it requires an explicit reason a precise purpose and a yearning motivation to walk the journey of life in the shadow of God In this book The Right Path Taken poetry chronicles the rewards of change It illustrates the various dimensions of love and how walking on the side of the Heavenly Father can provide the glories of remuneration that are not available on the road that is inherent with evil

Abiding Light Heidi L. Paulec,2021-05-04 A poignant memoir of loss and an inspirational guide to healing after a loved one's sudden death or suicide When a loved one dies suddenly at a young age or by suicide families and friends are often left in shock riddled grief This shock and the stigmatized feelings that sometimes accompany such tragedies can isolate the bereaved and stall their healing even as they yearn to connect with others Abiding Light is a four generation testimony rich resource for those grieving this kind of loss and for the communities that support them It can be read alone or in a group as it serves as a companion and fosters compassionate care and conversation through deep grief Simply through reading the personal stories within Abiding Light empathy and sympathy given space and time can seed courage and deeper connection through patience and conversation Negotiating a Presence-Centred Christian Counselling Simon Shui-Man Kwan,2016-04-26 How Christian is Christian counselling In what ways should one's counselling practice be conducted in order to fulfil one's role as a Christian counsellor Is there a counselling practice that truly penetrates into the secular approaches while remaining faithful to the Christian traditions of healing What are the theological roots of secular counselling How may secular counselling both reinforce and challenge the Christian faith In answering these questions this book engages readers to navigate between two frames of reference one Eastern secular social scientific and modern the other Western Christian theological and traditional At levels of both theory and practice this book undertakes to integrate synthesize hybridize revise dichotomize and antagonize the two It proposes a revised presence centred counselling approach which may serve as a perspective that helps us to see things in more depth as we shuttle back and forth between the two frames This book thus negotiates a revised presence centred form of counselling that is theologically grounded social scientifically informed and cross culturally sensitive As the author s counselling practice proceeds mainly in societies where Chinese is the majority the cross cultural examinations and proposals offered in this book have been bred in a space where Chinese culture meets the Christian Protestantism in particular West This book is an outgrowth of the author s experience teaching Christian counselling courses for 17 years and his 30 year clinical practice experience in places where East meets West namely Hong Kong and South China Guangdong Province
