Representing the Rainbow in Young Adult Literature Christine A. Jenkins, Michael Cart, 2018-03-20 Discussions of gender and sexuality have become part of mainstream conversations and are being reflected in the work of more and more writers of fiction particularly in literature aimed at young adult audiences But young readers regardless of their sexual orientation don't always know what books offer well rounded portrayals of queer characters and situations Fortunately finding positive role models in fiction that features LGBTQ themes has become less problematic though not without its challenges In Representing the Rainbow in Young Adult Literature LGBTQ Content since 1969 Christine Jenkins and Michael Cart provide an overview of the literary landscape An expanded version of The Heart Has Its Reasons this volume charts the evolution of YA literature that features characters and themes which resonate not only with LGBTQ readers but with their allies as well In this resource Jenkins and Cart identify titles that are notable either for their excellence accurate thoughtful and tactful depictions or deficiencies books that are wrongheaded stereotypical or outdated Each chapter has been significantly updated and this edition also includes new chapters on bisexual transgender and intersex issues and characters as well as chapters on comics graphic novels and works of nonfiction This book also features an annotated bibliography and a number of author title lists of books discussed in the text that will aid teachers librarians parents and teen readers Encompassing a wider array of sexual identities Representing the Rainbow in Young Adult Literature is an invaluable resource for young people eager to read about books relevant to them and their lives

Culture Wars Roger Chapman, 2015-03-17 The term culture wars refers to the political and sociological polarisation that has characterised American society the past several decades This new edition provides an enlightening and comprehensive A to Z ready reference now with supporting primary documents on major topics of contemporary importance for students teachers and the general reader It aims to promote understanding and clarification on pertinent topics that too often are not adequately explained or discussed in a balanced context With approximately 640 entries plus more than 120 primary documents supporting both sides of key issues this is a unique and defining work indispensable to informed discussions of the most timely and critical issues facing America today

LGBT Identity and Online New Media Christopher Pullen, Margaret Cooper, 2010-06-04 LGBT Identity and Online New Media examines constructions of LGBT identity within new media The contributors consider the effects issues influences benefits and disadvantages of these new media phenomena with respect to the construction of LGBT identities A wide range of mainstream and independent new media are analyzed including MySpace Facebook YouTube gay men's health websites message boards and Craigslist ads among others This is a pioneering interdisciplinary collection that is essential reading for anyone interested in the intersections of gender sexuality and technology

Religion, Death, and Dying Lucy Bregman, 2009-11-25 A wide ranging anthology for general readers covering many religious ethical and spiritual aspects of death dying and bereavement in American society What do various spiritual and ethical belief systems have to say about modern medicine's approach to the end of life Do all major religions characterize the afterlife in similar ways How do funeral rites and rituals vary across different faiths Now there is one resource that gathers leading scholars to address these questions and more about the many religious ethical and spiritual aspects of death dying and bereavement in America

Religion Death and Dying compares and contrasts the ways different faiths and ethical schools contemplate the end of life The work is organized into three thematic volumes first an examination of the contemporary medicalized death from the perspective of different religious traditions and the professions involved second an exploration of complex often controversial issues including the death of children AIDS capital punishment and war and finally a survey of the funeral and bereavement rituals that have evolved under various religions

Homophobia Jamie Hunt, 2014-11-17 The 1998 murder of 21 year old college freshman Matthew Shepard brought home to many Americans the issue of homophobia and hate crimes against lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT people Eventually it led to legislation at the federal level against people who commit hate crimes But homophobia the fear and hatred of gay people has a long history and despite many advances by the LGBT community homophobia continues in our own society and around the world Learn about the ways homophobia oppresses LGBT people their fight for civil rights and why an end to prejudice against gay people is important for all Americans Examine how you yourself might be homophobic And finally explore the ways young people straight and gay can work together toward mutual understanding respect and a better future for all of us by ending homophobia The Advocate ,2005-09-13 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States

Documenting Gay Men Christopher Pullen, 2015-02-28 This book charts an evolution in gay identity within American reality television and documentary film Through focusing on the performative potential of gay men it examines the emergence of the independent gay citizen as a bold new voice rejecting subjugation within the media Through examining productions as diverse as An American Family Tongues United Silverlake Life The Real World Paternal Instinct Trembling Before G D Queer Eye for the Straight Guy and many others this book explores how gay people as teens devoted couples parents inspiring individuals and influential producers have contributed to the progression of gay identity in domestic arenas These portrayals are played out while discussing AIDS race religion the development of same sex family forms the issues of procreation and gay marriage and the changing views of gay men as both creative producers and responsible social agents In these forms of entertainment gay social actors as political agents challenge dominant ideas and invent new social worlds

The Whole World was Watching Romaine Patterson, Patrick Hinds, 2005 On the evening of Thursday October 8 1998 20 year old Romaine Patterson received a phone call that her best friend Matthew Shepard had been beaten and left hanging on a split rail fence outside Laramie Wyoming Romaine was then thrust to the center of the worldwide media frenzy that descended on Laramie and she came face to face with twisted homophobia when Baptist minister Fred Phelps and his followers picketed Matthew's funeral with signs reading "Matt burns in hell." Upon learning of Phelps' plan to bring his ministry of hate to support Matt's killers at their trial, Romaine went into action. Who can forget the image of Romaine and her friends donning seven-foot angel wings so they could encircle Phelps and his gang, leaving the picketers silent and invisible. From that moment forward, Romaine has become a spokesperson for tolerance, acceptance, and nonviolence around the globe, whether as a founder of Angel Action, as a consultant for The Laramie Project, the award-winning play that has been produced hundreds of times and became an acclaimed HBO film starring Christina Ricci as Romaine. In one of their last conversations, Matt told Romaine that he wanted to spend his life helping people realize that they, as individuals, could make a difference in the world. This is Romaine Patterson's journey to realizing the truth of that statement.

Wyoming native Romaine Patterson got started in activism when her close friend Matthew Shepard was killed. In April of 1999, she founded Angel Action, an organization for peaceful demonstration. Angel Action is now used all over the world as a means of combating hate. She has also served as a regional media manager for the Gay Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation (GLAAD). She continues her work educating youth about hate crimes and has lectured at the University of Wyoming, Georgetown University, Penn State, and others. She currently lives in Brooklyn.
