The Babylonian Planet Sonja Neef,2021-11-04 What is astro culture In The Babylonian Planet it is unfolded as an aesthetic an idea a field of study a position and a practice It helps to engineer the shift from a world view that is segregated to one that is integrated from global to planetary from distance to intimacy and where closeness and cosmic distance live side by side In this tour de force Sonja Neef takes her cue from Edouard Glissant s vision of multilingualism and reignites the myth of the Tower of Babel to anticipate new forms of cultural encounter For her Babel is an organic construction site at which she fuses theoretical analysis and case studies of artists writers and thinkers like William Kentridge Orhan Pamuk and Immanuel Kant Her skilful interrogations then allow her to paint a portrait of art and culture that abolishes the horizon as a barrier to vision and reclaims it as a place of contact and relation By combining the Babylonian concept of the encounter and the planetary concept of the whole earth Neef creates a space an astro culture in which she can examine topics as varied as language translation media modernity migration and the moon In doing so she instigates a renewed cultural understanding receptive to the kinder forms of cultural encounter and globalisation she hopes will come

Challenging the Boundaries Işıl Baş,Donald C. Freeman,2007 Challenging the Boundaries seeks to transcend the limits of literary genres and national cultures exploring both old and new frontiers in language and literature from an interdisciplinary multifaceted and challenging perspective Selected from the pathbreaking Istanbul conference of the Poetics and Linguistics Association these papers treat topics ranging from contemporary neurobiology s insights into the sources of poetic creativity to the cultural theories of Michel Foucault and Hélène Cixous and their literary consequences from the films of the American director David Lynch to those of the Senegalese artist Djibril Diop Mambety from the work of the Turkish novelist Orhan Pamuk to James Joyce s Ulysses and the stories of Virginia Woolf This volume will be of particular interest to readers who might wish to become acquainted with the work of able young scholars from an exceptionally wide array of academic cultures and theoretical commitments The authors whose essays appear in Challenging the Boundaries reflect in their approaches and subjects both the breadth and depth of the international academic community PALA Papers is a series of volumes comprising essays selected and edited from presentations at the annual conferences of the Poetics and Linguistics Association an international body of scholars whose work focuses on the interdisciplinary nexus of linguistics discourse theory and literary analysis criticism and theory Each volume will present studies that provide models to scholars throughout the world for conducting their own research in this multidisciplinary paradigm on such topics as among many others close linguistic analysis of canonical literary works corpus based studies of literary narrative and the linguistic basis of contemporary social and cultural theory

Re-thinking Europe Nele Bemong,Mirjam Truwant,Pieter Vermeulen,2008 Re Thinking Europe sets out to investigate the place of the idea of Europe in literature and comparative literary studies The essays in this collection turn to the past in which Europe became synonymous with a tradition of peace and tolerance beyond national borders and enter into a critical dialogue with the present in which Europe has increasingly become associated with a history of oppression and violence The different essays together demonstrate how the idea of Europe cannot be thought apart from the tension between the regional and the global between nationalism and pluralism and can therefore be re thought as an opportunity for an identity beyond national or ethnic borders Engaging contemporary discourses on hybrid postcolonial and transnational identity this volume shows how literature can function as both a vital tool to forge new identities and a power subversive of such attempts at identity formation Like Europe it is always marked by the tension between integration and resistance The book will be of interest to students and scholars of modern literature comparative literature and European studies as well as people concerned with cultural memory and the relation between literature and cultural identity

The Ottomans Marc David Baer,2021-10-05 This major new history of the Ottoman dynasty reveals a diverse empire that straddled East and West The Ottoman Empire has long been depicted as the Islamic Asian antithesis of the Christian European West But the reality was starkly different the Ottomans multiethnic multilingual and multireligious domain reached deep into Europe's heart. Indeed, the Ottoman rulers saw themselves as the new Romans. Recounting the Ottomans' remarkable rise from a frontier principality to a world empire, historian Marc David Baer traces their debts to their Turkish, Mongolian, Islamic, and Byzantine heritage. The Ottomans pioneered religious toleration even as they used religious conversion to integrate conquered peoples. But in the nineteenth century they embraced exclusivity, leading to ethnic cleansing, genocide, and the empire's demise after the First World War. The Ottomans vividly reveals the dynasty's full history and its enduring impact on Europe and the world.

More Matter John Updike, 2009-02-19 In this collection of nonfiction pieces, John Updike gathers his responses to nearly two hundred invitations into print, each an opportunity to make something beautiful to find within oneself a treasure that would otherwise remain buried. Introductions, reviews, and humorous essays, paragraphs on New York religion, and lust here is more matter commissioned by an age that, as the author remarks in his Preface, calls for real stuff, not for the obliquities and tenuousities of fiction. Still, the novelist's shaping hand, his gift for telling detail, can be detected in many of these literary considerations. Books by Edith Wharton, Dawn Powell, John Cheever, and Vladimir Nabokov are incisively treated as are biographies of Isaac Newton, Abraham Lincoln, Queen Elizabeth II, and Helen Keller. As George Steiner observed, Updike writes with a solicitous, almost tender intelligence. The critic and the poet in him are at no odds with the novelist; the same sharpness of apprehension bears on the object in each of Updike's modes.

Edinburgh Companion to the Postcolonial Middle East Ball, Anna Ball, 2018-11-14 This Edinburgh Companion seeks to develop a postcolonial framework for addressing the Middle East. The first collection of essays on this subject, it assembles some of the world's foremost postcolonialists to explore the critical theoretical and disciplinary possibilities that inquiry into this region opens for postcolonial studies. Throughout its twenty-four chapters, its focus is on literary and cultural critique. It draws on texts and contexts from the late nineteenth to the early twenty-first centuries as case studies and deploys the concept of postcolonial modernity to reveal the enduring impact of colonial and imperial power on the shaping of the region. And it covers a wide and significant range of political, social, and cultural issues in the Middle East during that period, including the heritage of Orientalism in the region, the roots and contemporary branches of the Israel-Palestine conflict, colonial history, state formation, and cultures of resistance in Egypt, Turkey, the Maghreb, and the wider Arab world; the clash of tradition and modernity in regional and transnational expressions of Islam; the politics of gender and sexuality in the Arab world; the ongoing crises in Libya, Iraq, Iran, and Syria; the Arab Spring; and the Middle Eastern refugee crisis in Europe.

Silent House Orhan Pamuk, 2013-02-01 In an old mansion in Cennethisar a former fishing village near Istanbul an old widow Fatma awaits the annual summer visit of her grandchildren She has lived in the village for decades ever since her husband an idealistic young doctor first arrived to serve the poor fishermen Now mostly bedridden she is attended by her faithful servant Recep a dwarf and the doctor's illegitimate son Under the creeping shadow of right wing nationalism and political revolution they share memories and grievances of the early years before their home became a high class resort Her visiting grandchildren are Faruk a dissipated failed historian his sensitive leftist sister Nilgun has yet to discover the real life consequences of highminded politics and Metin a high school student drawn to the fast life of the nouveaux riches who dreams of going to America But it is Recep's nephew Hassan a high school dropout lately fallen in with right wing nationalism who will draw this family into the revolution and the growing political cataclysm issuing from Turkey's tumultuous century long struggle for modernity By turns deeply moving hilarious and terrifying Silent House pulses with the energy of a great writer's early work even as it offers beguiling evidence of the mature genius for which Orhan Pamuk winner of the Nobel Prize in 2006 would later be world renowned
