The Society of the Selfie Jeremiah Morelock, Felipe Ziotti Narita, 2021-12-14 This book explores how the Internet is connected to the global crisis of liberal democracy Today self promotion is at the heart of many human relationships The selfie is not just a social media gesture people love to hate It is also a symbol of social reality in the age of the Internet Through social media people have new ways of rating and judging themselves and one another via metrics such as likes shares followers and friends There are new thirsts for authenticity outlets for verbal aggression and social problems Social media culture and neoliberalism dovetail and amplify one another feeding social estrangement With neoliberalism psychosocial wounds are agitated and authoritarianism is provoked Yet this new sociality also inspires resistance and political mobilisation Illustrating ideas and trends with examples from news and popular culture the book outlines and applies theories from Debord Foucault Fromm Goffman and Giddens among others Topics covered include the global history of communication technologies personal branding echo chamber effects alienation and fear of abnormality Information technologies provide channels for public engagement where extreme ideas reach farther and faster than ever before and political differences are widened and inflamed They also provide new opportunities for protest and resistance

Communication Technology and Society Carolyn A. Lin, David J. Atkin, 2002 This text offers an understanding of emerging wired wireless entertainment and information media It researches new media and technology from interpersonal organizational and mass communication perspectives and there are summaries of key finds and directions for future work
