Two Lives Janet Malcolm, 2007 Two Lives is Janet Malcolm's stunning portrait of a legendary couple Gertrude Stein the modernist master and Alice B Toklas the worker bee who ministered to Stein's needs throughout their forty year expatriate marriage As Malcolm pursues the truth of the couple's charmed life in a village in Vichy France her subject becomes the larger question of biographical truth The instability of human knowledge is one of our few certainties she writes The portrait of their relationship that emerges is unexpectedly charged The two world wars Stein and Toklas lived through together are paralleled by the private war that went on between them This war as Malcolm learned sometimes flared into bitter combat Janet Malcolm is at her finest in this extraordinary work of literary biography and investigative journalism And the Rest

Outside Thing Hannah Roche, 2019-05-28 In a lecture delivered before the University of Oxford's Anglo French Society in 1936 Gertrude Stein described romance as the outside thing that is always a thing to be felt inside Hannah Roche takes Stein's definition as a principle for the reinterpretation of three major modernist lesbian writers showing how literary and affective romance played a crucial yet overlooked role in the works of Stein Radclyffe Hall and Djuna Barnes The Outside Thing offers original readings of both canonical and peripheral texts including Stein's first novel Q E D Things As They Are Hall's Adam's Breed and The Well of Loneliness and Barnes's early writing alongside Nightwood Is there an inside space for lesbian writing or must it always seek refuge elsewhere Crossing established lines of demarcation between the in and the out the real and the romantic and the Victorian and the modernist The Outside Thing presents romance as a heterosexual plot upon which lesbian writers willfully set up camp These writers boldly adopted and adapted the romance genre Roche argues as a means of staking a queer claim on a heteronormative institution Refusing to submit or surrender to the straight traditions of the romance plot they turned the rules to their advantage Drawing upon extensive archival research The Outside Thing is a significant rethinking of the interconnections between queer writing lesbian living and literary modernism Fear of Theory, 2021-11-29 Listen to the podcast here Recent academic historiography has seen a profusion of theoretical perspectives on biography both analytical and descriptive Yet many biographers still fear theory as antithetical to accessible
