Power Shift? Political Leadership and Social Media

David Taras, Richard Davis, 2019-12-09 Power Shift Political Leadership and Social Media examines how political leaders have adapted to the challenges of social media including Facebook Instagram Twitter and memes among other means of persuasion Established political leaders now use social media to grab headlines respond to opponents fundraise contact voters directly and organize their election campaigns Leaders of protest movements have used social media to organize and galvanize grassroots support and to popularize new narratives narratives that challenge and sometimes overturn conventional thinking Yet each social media platform provides different affordances and different attributes and each is used differently by political leaders In this book leading international experts provide an unprecedented look at the role of social media in leadership today Through a series of case studies dealing with topics ranging from Emmanuel Macron and Donald Trump's use of Twitter to Justin Trudeau's use of selfies and Instagram to how feminist leaders mobilize against stereotypes and injustices the authors argue that many leaders have found additional avenues to communicate with the public and use power This raises the question of whether this is causing a power shift in the relationship between leaders and followers Together the chapters in this book suggest new rules of engagement that leaders ignore at their peril The lack of systematic theoretically informed and empirically supported analyses makes Power Shift Political Leadership and Social Media an indispensable read for students and scholars wishing to gain new understanding on what social media means for leadership

Social Protection Goals in East Asia Mukul G. Asher, Fauziah Zen, Astrid Dita, 2018-04-09

The book examines the conceptual economic and fiscal impacts of the Social Protection Floor SPF initiative of the International Labor Organisation ILO and other policy influencers by first critically examining the methodologies used by the international agencies to estimate the fiscal costs of designated minimum packages of social protection programs The book also briefly reviews the methodologies used and usefulness of the Social Protection Index SPI of the Asian Development Bank ADB Second the book analyses strategies and specific initiatives used by the selected East Asian countries China India Indonesia the Philippines

Thailand and Vietnam designed to progress towards the social protection goals underlying the Social Development Goals SDGs adopted by the United Nations in September 2015 and endorsed by the countries covered in this book Finally the book provides a framework for generating fiscal space to fund the social protection programs and initiatives The country chapters utilise this framework in the context of each specific country to suggest generating fiscal space

Decolonial Enactments in Community Psychology Shose Kessi, Shahnaaz Suffla, Mohamed Seedat, 2021-11-30 This edited volume in the Community Psychology Book Series emphasizes applications of community psychology for disrupting dominant and hegemonic power relations The book explores domains of work that are located within critical community psychology as well as work that is conventionally not self defined as community psychology but which draws on and contributes to the foundations and enactments of critical and liberatory community psychology Specifically the book advances conceptions and praxes for community psychology grounded within a decolonial framework The volume heeds the call for a generation of approaches to community psychology that link local struggles to broader questions of power identity and knowledge production bringing together examples of praxes from different contexts as a political project of highlighting indigenous struggles toward self determination Collectively the chapters in this book embody a decolonial agenda for community psychology that foregrounds social justice the lives and knowledges of the marginalized and oppressed epistemic disobedience and transdisciplinarity and decolonial aesthetics The book is divided into two parts Part I Conceptions of Engagement for Community Psychology delves into the conceptual framework for a decolonial community psychology and Part II Modes of Enactments and Praxes for Community Psychology builds on these theoretical advancements through examples of praxis in different contexts The audience for the book includes scholars researchers practitioners activists and students located within community psychology specifically as well as disciplines within the health and social sciences and arts and humanities more broadly
