A Psychiatrist's View of Marijuana Timmen Cermak, 2020-04-02 An essential guide covering the scientific knowledge and communication skills required to deliver objective patient advice about marijuana use Migration Within the EU Context, Seen through a Multidisciplinary and Plurilinguistic View Francesca Cappellini, Paolo Gambatesa, Alvaro Dickson Molinares Valencia, Jan Pokorný, 2025-07-11 Explore the intricate interplay between law language and migration in the 21st century with this cutting edge collection It offers a fresh interdisciplinary approach from the perspective of early career scholars and legal practitioners with expertise in law and linguistics This collection aims to provide insights into today's global migration landscape through the lens of corpus linguistics and analysis of relevant legislation and case law It focuses on challenges faced by migrants at national and supranational levels and examines the transformative potential of inclusive integration Designed for legal scholars linguists policymakers and anyone interested in human rights and migration this book challenges conventional arguments and offers actionable insights In an increasingly interconnected world this volume aims to become essential reading for those dedicated to fostering social cohesion and inclusivity By bridging the gap between law linguistics and migration studies it empowers readers to contribute meaningfully to the ongoing migration discourse

Installation Art and the Museum Vivian Saaze, 2025-10-01 Installation art has become mainstream in artistic practices However acquiring and displaying such artworks implies that curators and conservators are challenged to deal with obsolete technologies ephemeral materials and other issues concerning care and management of these artworks By analysing three in depth case studies the author sheds new light on the key concepts of traditional conservation authenticity artist's intention and the notion of ownership while exploring how these concepts apply in contemporary art conservation Based on original empirical research and cross case analysis this ground breaking study offers a re examination of traditional conservation values and ethics and argues for a reassessment of the role of the conservator of contemporary art Mars and the Earthlings: A Realistic View on Mars Exploration and Settlement Cyprien Verseux, Muriel Gargaud, Kirsi Lehto, Michel Viso, 2025-01-17 In an era of public Mars fascination this book offers an objective presentation of the challenges of crewed Mars missions and discusses scenarios of Mars settlements under scientific technical social economic ethical and political aspects With the aim to make the reader comprehend what is plausible and what is at stake the book tries to clarify misconceptions and half truths spreading rapidly in the public The authors argue that approximations and misinformation should be countered for two main reasons First to avoid missing out on the benefits that Mars exploration may bring including major scientific discoveries and an inspiring federative human endeavor Second to remediate dangerous delusions such as the idea that humanity could be transferred there should the Earth become inhabitable in the near term In preparation for this book a group of European world renowned scientists from fields as diverse as astronomy planetology geology biology philosophy or economics as well as astronauts and science fiction writers was gathered to discuss Mars missions ranging from near term robotic missions all the way to large scale settlements and even the feasibility of terraforming For each they draw arguments from their domains of expertise to discuss what is feasible and what is desirable The result provides researchers with an objective review of the field policy makers with a reference to make informed decisions and the general public with a tool to form educated opinions
