Un Safety And Security Manual:

The Duty of Care of International Organizations Towards Their Civilian Personnel Andrea de Guttry, Micaela Frulli, Edoardo Greppi, Chiara Macchi, 2018-08-17 This book constitutes the first comprehensive publication on the duty of care of international organizations towards their civilian personnel sent on missions and assignments outside of their normal place of activity. While the work of the civilian personnel of international organizations often carries an inherent risk, the regulations, policies and practices of the employer can help to address and mitigate that risk. In this book, the specific content and scope of the duty of care under international law is clarified by conducting an unprecedented investigation into relevant jurisprudence and legal sources. Included is a critical assessment of the policies of selected international organizations while a set of guiding principles on the duty of care of international organizations is also presented. This publication fills a gap in the existing academic literature on the topic and is aimed particularly at academics and practitioners interested in the legal implications of the deployment of civilian personnel abroad by international organizations. This includes scholars and university level students specializing in international law, international human rights law, the law of international organizations, labour law, EU law, international administrative law and the UN system and practitioners such as lawyers and consultants representing or advising international organizations or their personnel on the legal aspects of deployment. The book is also aimed at the senior management of international organizations and at their officers in charge of recruitment, human resources, training and security in that it clarifies their legal obligations and provides concrete examples of the policies various international organizations have in place for the protection of civilian personnel. Current and prospective civilian personnel of international organizations should also find the book useful for clarifying their rights and duties. Andrea de Guttry is Full Professor at the Dirpolis Institute of the Sant Anna School of Advanced Studies in Pisa. Micaela Frulli is Associate Professor at the Dipartimento di Scienze Giuridiche DSG University of Florence. Edoardo Greppi is Full Professor at the Dipartimento di Giurisprudenza University of Turin and Chiara Macchi is Research Fellow at the Dirpolis Institute of the Sant Anna School of Advanced Studies in Pisa.

United Nations Peacekeeping Challenge Anna Powles, Negar Partow, 2016-03-09 Drawing from a diverse range of military, policing, academic and policymakers' experiences, this book seeks to provide solutions of how national militaries and police can work together to better support future United Nations peacekeeping operations. It addresses the growing tension between increasing non-combat related responsibilities being placed on land forces and the ability of UN peacekeeping forces to fulfil the demands of government and development tasks in fragile and conflict affected environments. An original contribution to the debate on UN peacekeeping reforms that includes constructing an enhanced partnership for peacekeeping, building on renewed commitment to share the burden and for regional cooperation, providing peacekeepers with the necessary capabilities to protect civilians and supporting nations in transition from conflict to stabilisation. This book offers the very latest in informed analysis and decision making on UN peacekeeping reform.
