Craig,2002 Craig begins by attributing the early introduction of the Recherche to the intimate friendship between Proust and the pianist composer Reynaldo Halm who was born in Caracas He then shows in chapter 1 how literary critics of the principal newspapers and literary magazines of such countries as Venezuela Argentina and Chile examined this French text which we know today as one of the fundamental works of modernism Shortly thereafter interest in the Recherche spread to Cuba Mexico Uruguay and Colombia Eventually it would be read in all parts of the New World Over the years Spanish Americans have continued to write about the Recherche and have published several noteworthy books on it which are included in the comprehensive bibliography which serves as an appendix BOOK JACKET Cómo operar en los Tribunales del Cielo (revisado y ampliado) (Spanish Edition) Robert Henderson,2021-09-21 Presenta tu caso ante el Tribunal del Cielo y recibe victoria C mo operar en los tribunales del cielo ha llegado a ser un libro de mayor venta internacional que ha transformado vidas sobrenaturalmente por todo el mundo No es una estrategia de oraci n m s es un modelo para involucrar una Textiles: Production, Trade and Demand Maureen Fennell Mazzaoui,2016-12-05 This volume examines the role of textiles within the expanding global economy in the Age of European Exploration Major themes include the opening of new markets and responses to competition in the cloth trade evolving techniques and modes of production and changes in the patterns of consumption of local and imported cloth in a comparative cross cultural context Bulletin of Spanish Studies ,1928 All Spanish method, short course Guillermo Franklin Hall Aviles,1924 Scripts of Blackness Noémie Ndiaye,2022-09-20 Scripts of Blackness shows how the early modern mass media of theatre and performance culture at large helped turn blackness into a racial category that is into a type of difference justifying emerging social hierarchies and power relations in a new world order driven by colonialism and capitalism In this book No mie Ndiaye explores the techniques of impersonation used by white performers to represent Afro diasporic people in England France and Spain in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries using a comparative and transnational framework She reconstructs three specific performance techniques black up cosmetic blackness blackspeak acoustic blackness and black dances kinetic blackness in order to map out the poetics of those techniques and track a number of metaphorical strains that early modern playtexts regularly associated with them Those metaphorical strains the titular scripts of blackness of this book operated across national borders and constituted resources as they provided spectators and participants with new ways of thinking about the Afro diasporic people who lived or could would ultimately live in their midst Those scripts were often gendered and hinged on notions of demonization exclusion exploitation animalization commodification sexualization consensual enslavement misogynoir infantilization and evocative association with other racialized minorities Scripts of Blackness attempts to grasp the stories that Western Europeans told themselves through performative blackness and the effects of those fictions on early modern Afro diasporic subjects Sex, Identity and Hermaphrodites in Iberia, 1500-1800 Francisco Vazquez Garcia,2015-10-06 Early modern European thought held that men and women were essentially the same During the seventeenth century medical and legal arguments began to turn against this one sex model with hermaphroditism seen as a medieval superstition This book traces this change in Iberia in comparison to the earlier shift in thought in northern Europe A New Anthology of Early Modern Spanish Theater Barbara Louise Mujica,2015-01-01 An anthology of plays from the Spanish Golden Age contains the full text of 15 plays an introduction to each play with information about the author the work performance issues and current criticism and glossaries with definitions of difficult words and concepts Sex and Love in Golden Age Spain Alain Saint-Saëns,1996 We Are All Chile Katherine Karr-Cornejo,2025-04-15 A study of the relationship between literature and the current conditions of national life We Are All Chile explores how artistic expression reflects lived experience The book travels through figures symbols and events in Chilean history from the sixteenth to the end of the nineteenth centuries as represented through historical fiction of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries an oeuvre that uses historical stories to reflect upon the challenges of Chilean society post dictatorship Contrasting the use of these stories with previous understanding highlights the power of legacies of the dictatorial authoritarian state particularly as they shape possibilities for the full flourishing of people without regard for their minoritized or disadvantaged identities such as their sex sexual orientation ethnicity or race This treatment of Chilean history and culture brings together literature and historiography to offer powerful interpretations of cultural narratives The focus on varied dimensions of difference illustrates both overlapping representations and distinctive features of each within narratives imagining a more inclusive community Throughout We Are All Chile historical narratives and their source material are connected to support the creation of imaginative space for a better and more expansive future The stories studied highlight the relationships between gender empire and the body performances of race and gender that evoke a utopian dream of coexistence symbols and systems of the nation as reflections of authoritarian practices the legibility of the claims of indigenous communities the role of violence in community building and the strategies of lament inherent in the repeated stories of dreams for a more inclusive future shattered on the structures of exclusion These historical narratives alone cannot change the material conditions in which people live but they can awaken hope for the future that can inspire change And it is this very process of defending questioning challenging and changing historical stories that opens the door to possibility Dictionary of Quotations (Spanish) Thomas Benfield Harbottle,Martin Andrew Sharp Hume,1907

Asymmetric Ecologies in Europe and South America around 1800 Susanne Schlünder,Rolando M. Carrasco,2022-08-01 This volume proposes new ways of understanding the historical semantics of the relationship between humans and nature in South America in the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries The authors in this volume use the notion of asymmetry to discuss the representations of and forms of knowledge about nature circulating in and about colonial and postcolonial South America They argue that the production of knowledge about the American natural space widened the power gap between the Europeans colonizers and the local population This gap therefore rests on what we call asymmetric ecologies Eurocentric epistemic orders excluded forms of indigenous mestizo and Creole knowledge about nature By looking at literary as well as non literary sources such as natural histories travel narratives encyclopaedias or medical writing the essays in this volume trace the origins of new theoretical paradigms ecocriticism biopolitics transarea studies etc and examine the regional cultural identity and epistemic conflicts that undercut the Eurocentric narrative of enlightened modernity
