Under Cover of Stardust H. R. Kittle-Rojas, 2014-12-16 Her parents were killed when the Germans invaded France leaving her all alone to care for a sickly aristocrat As she grew into young womanhood she found purpose in helping the French Resistance She lives under constant threat of disappearing in the dark of night never to be seen again like so many others during the Nazi occupation Now on the night of June 5 1944 she is totally unprepared for what comes floating down from the sky into her life He was a young cowboy from Montana who volunteered to fight for his country as soon as he was old enough The Airborne trained him to deploy by parachute and fight behind enemy lines But a series of mishaps on the eve of the biggest invasion in world history causes him to be dropped farther behind enemy lines than anybody planned for Both are resigned to face the horrors of war Neither expect the improbable love that blossoms under the cover of stardust
