Jenkins,2016 The Valley of Dry Bones John C. Burt,2016-09-15 A book about the very real resurrection that can happen of faith hope love and belief in our world of today Based largely on the text and scene and scenes of Ezekiel 37 Out of death decay and the destruction of the exile comes life and even the hope of life eternal The Valley of Dry Bones and God's Breath of Life 'Ezekiel and the Dry Bones Kids' Bible Stories Ayokunle Mathew Akinbi,2025-06-12 The Valley of Dry Bones and God s Breath of Life Ezekiel and the Dry Bones The day began like any other for the prophet Ezekiel The air was warm and the familiar scent of baking bread drifted from a neighbor s home Suddenly a feeling like a gentle but powerful whirlwind wrapped around him It didn t push him or scare him it felt warm like the most comforting hug he could ever imagine The world around him blurred into a swirl of sandy yellows and sky blues as he was lifted no longer feeling the ground beneath his feet A quiet peaceful hum filled his ears as the hand of the Lord carried him away on a mysterious and holy journey Just as suddenly as the journey began it stopped Ezekiel s feet touched down on soft powdery dust His breath caught in his throat as he looked around a huge wide valley There were no green trees or colorful flowers no sound of birds or buzzing bees The whole valley was filled with bones white brittle and scattered like countless forgotten pebbles The air smelled of nothing but dry dust and old sun baked stone An eerie silence pressed in on him so quiet he could hear the soft poof his sandals made with every hesitant step As he stared at the sea of bones a voice spoke seeming to come from everywhere at once as deep as thunder but as gentle as a whisper Son of man the voice rumbled kindly can these bones live Ezekiel looked at the dry cracked skulls and piles of bony fingers A dry dusty taste filled his mouth How could he possibly answer Feeling as small as an ant he answered with honesty O Lord God only you know At that moment a feeling of warmth a tiny spark of hope spread through his chest God s voice came again not with a question but with an instruction Prophecy to these bones God said Speak to them Ezekiel stood a little taller took a deep breath of dusty air and prepared to speak the most powerful words the valley had ever heard His voice echoed across the silent landscape For a moment nothing happened Then he heard it a tiny clink Then another louder Clink Clatter Soon a soft rattling sound started and the ground began to vibrate The rattling grew into a roar a chaotic wonderful symphony of clicking clacking and snapping as bones lifted from the dust and flew through the air each finding its perfect partner in a wild divine dance In a few moments the thunderous noise stopped The dust settled revealing a perfectly formed army of skeletons standing in silent rows the sun glinting off their white skulls Then a new miracle began Silently threads of red muscle and tendon began to weave themselves around the bones giving them shape and strength A layer of soft skin stretched over them changing the army from brilliant white to the warm fleshy tones of human beings They had hair and fingernails ears and noses but their eyes were closed Their chests did not rise and fall They were an army asleep perfectly formed but without life Once again the voice of God filled the valley Prophecy to the breath God commanded Speak to the wind itself As Ezekiel stared in awe God s voice explained the vision Son of man these bones are my people the people of Israel They feel hopeless like their story is over But just as I have raised this army I will rescue them from their sadness and bring them home A deep comforting joy filled Ezekiel s heart The vision was over but the image of the living army was burned into his mind forever He now knew with all his heart that nothing was too broken for God to fix nothing too dead for God to bring back to life With God there was always a living hope
