Vampire+love Konrad Winters, 2015-04-18 Fiction Paranormal Romance Vampire Ian McIntyre thought his vampire romance book was just a lark a romantic adventure with a twist He knew that vampires were a myth He brushed off would be admirers with a scoff Vampires are just a figment of our imagination And that's what he thought until he met one Dangerous and beautiful Naomi is an intoxicating combination that even he couldn't resist And she needs his help A note from the Author The Dhampir an ancient Romanian word for a Vampire Halfling is a kinder and gentler version of the traditional vampire character yet still capable of extraordinary feats of strength and agility The Dhampir is less the monster found in classic literature and more human of which all of them are mostly This conceptual change emphasizes the human qualities of the vampire myth with all the frailties and foibles that are associated with being human Yes it's a book about vampires but I wanted to set the vampire myth on its ear in a manner of speaking and to explore the romance and adventure of this world from a human perspective My rating would be PG 13 for violence and language
