Vanishing Ireland Recollections Of Our Changing Times:

Vanishing Ireland James Fennell, Turtle Bunbury, 2013-09-10 In Vanishing Ireland Recollections of our Changing Times award winning photographer James Fennell and bestselling author Turtle Bunbury once again journey the length and breadth of Ireland to bring us an extraordinary powerful new collection of poignant interviews from ordinary men and women who share with us their memories providing us with an invaluable link to the past Through words and stunningly evocative photographs we meet the people of Ireland who lived through adversity and hardship during the formative decades of independent Ireland yet whose courage kindness and humour remains intact We talk with those who watched friends and family sail for foreign shores and lose ourselves in a world where life was simpler yet somehow happier where storytelling fiddle playing c il s and communal pastimes cemented the deep friendships that became the lifeblood of each community As stories are shared beside the warmth of a fire in farmhouses in Kerry and Clare in the turf sheds of Limerick and Tipperary over cups of tea and glasses of whiskey in the kitchens of Wexford Sligo and Dublin in the cobbled yards of Wicklow and Tipperary in the shadow of the hills of Leitrim and Donegal on the pavements of Dublin City and against the sound of crashing waves on the coast of Galway we meet the people who have lived through times of change as the past comes alive through their words Blacksmiths saddlers harness makers and coal miners mattress makers factory workers bonesetters and cattle drivers all are gathered here as we are afforded a glimpse of the inimitable spirit of the people of this country The world continues to change but gathered within these pages are stories and to be cherished to keep the past alive long into the future

Elizabeth Bowen Patricia Laurence, 2021-07-21 Elizabeth Bowen A Literary Life reinvents Bowen as a public intellectual propagandist spy cultural ambassador journalist and essayist as well as a writer of fiction Patricia Laurence counters the popular image of Bowen as a mannered reserved Anglo Irish writer and presents her as a bold independent woman who took risks and made her own rules in life and writing This biography distinguishes itself from others in the depth of research into the life experiences that fueled Bowen s writing her espionage for the British Ministry of Information in neutral Ireland 1940 1941 and the devoted circle of friends lovers intellectuals and writers whom she valued Isaiah Berlin William Plomer Maurice Bowra Stuart Hampshire Charles Ritchie Sean O Faolain Virginia Woolf Rosamond Lehmann and Eudora Welty among others The biography also demonstrates how her feelings of irresolution about national identity and gender roles were dispelled through her writing Her vivid fiction often about girls and women is laced with irony about smooth social surfaces rent by disruptive emotion the sadness of beleaguered adolescents the occurrence of cultural dislocation historical atmosphere as well as undercurrents of violence in small events and betrayal and disappointment in romance Her strong visual imagination so much a part of the texture of her writing traces places landscapes and objects that subliminally reveal hidden aspects of her characters Though her reputation faltered in the 1960s 1970s given her political and social conservatism now readers are discovering her passionate and poetic temperament and writing as well as
