The World Bank Its First Half Century Vol 2 Perspectives:

The Elgar Companion to the World Bank Antje Vetterlein, Tobias Schmidtke, 2024-09-06 The Elgar Companion to the World Bank provides a comprehensive review of the past 80 years for this powerful development institution Using different theoretical approaches from an expert group of scholars as well as practitioners it presents an interdisciplinary exploration of the World Bank and the wider field of International Relations

The World Bank Eric Toussaint, 2007-12-20 The World Bank is a controversial organisation It is widely viewed with suspicion as the international economic arm of the US in thrall to the President who is responsible for appointing the head of the Bank Eric Toussaint gives a highly readable account of just why the World Bank has become so powerful In short clear chapters he shows how the bank operates who funds it and what it sets out to promote The Bank's main purpose is to grant loans to all the newly independent states of the developing world to help them on their journey to recovery after colonial occupation In reality the conditions imposed on these states including enforced privatisation of all public services and enforced neo liberal rules on trade mean that the Bank has become the new colonial authority in everything but name

Handbook on the Politics of International Development Deciancio, Melisa, Nemiña, Pablo, Tussie, Diana, 2022-05-24 This innovative book sets out to rethink corporate social responsibility CSR in global value chains

Food for All Uma Lele, Manmohan Agarwal, Brian C. Baldwin, Sambuddha Goswami, 2021-10-15 Many developing countries are falling behind sustainable development goals food and nutrition levels have deteriorated due to conflict climate change and the Covid pandemic while global ambitions for achieving sustainable food security and adequate nutrition have increased But what are the prospects of achieving sustainable healthy food for all What is the best response to concerns about growing differentiation among developing countries in terms of domestic agricultural and industrial performance How have global institutions established during the post World War Two period helped developing countries to deal with the past economic fallout of food fuel and financial crises Food for All explores how developments since these organizations were established have led to changes in the provision of international financial and technical assistance in support of the global food and agriculture system and how developing countries own efforts have helped transform them These developments and the increase in the number of global actors have expanded and complicated global governance presenting both opportunities for as well as challenges to the improvement of food systems This volume provides an analysis of the structure coordination and management of the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO the International Fund for Agricultural Development IFAD and the World Food Programme WFP It also looks at the World Bank the largest international funder of policy advice and investment projects and CGIAR a leading funder of international agricultural research This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations

Global Challenges For Future Food And Agricultural Policies David Blandford, Katharine Hassapoyannes, 2019-01-10 This book examines the current and future challenges facing the food and agricultural system and their implications for policymaking at the national and international level The growth in global population and income is expected to result in increasing demand for food and agricultural raw materials intensifying concerns over food security and increasing pressure on the planet's natural resources Moreover climate change a challenge on its own is likely to increase the urgency for reforms in the food and agricultural sector As a substantial contributor to greenhouse gas emissions the sector will need to participate in efforts to slow global warming and to adjust to the effects of climate change while ensuring global food security and resource sustainability These pressures define a new set of priorities for policymaking at the national and international level They also necessitate changes in the framework of global institutions for effective governance of the food system Global Challenges for Future Food and Agricultural Policies presents a comprehensive analysis of the inter related policy challenges of food security management of natural resources climate change and international governance The book also offers valuable insights into options for effective policymaking with the goal of inducing positive policy changes to the food and agricultural sector

The Oxford Companion to Politics of the World Joel Krieger, Margaret E. Crahan, 2001-08-02 The world has seen dramatic changes since the publication of the first edition of The Oxford Companion to Politics of the World in 1993 In the post Cold War world globalization now offers wealth and opportunities on a broader scale as well as greater international harmony but threatens to reinforce the advantage gap between wealthy and poor regions and intensify environmental degradation Conflict and squalor expressed in brutal brushfire wars epidemics and chronic underdevelopment vie with equally dramatic accounts of growth and democracy associated with a liberal political order and the global diffusion of trade investment and communications Drawing on the breadth of the first edition this updated edition reflects the changing world with a reassessment of many of the core themes of the Companion and new articles on the people concepts and events that have shaped the world since 1993 The second edition includes biographies of Kofi Annan Tony Blair Bill Clinton and Gerhard Schröder articles on events such as the Rwandan Genocide and the war in Kosovo and coverage of international trade developments such as NAFTA and the World Trade Organization Eighty seven of the 672 articles in the Second Edition are completely new most others are thoroughly revised This edition also features a substantial new set of articles a dozen essays on critical issues written by influential figures Recognizing the importance of including varying viewpoints the editors have commissioned these essays to provide an informed and often passionate debate on controversial topics Discussions include Lani Guinier and Glenn Loury on Affirmative Action Francis Fukuyama and Milton Fisk on the Limits of Liberal Democracy and Lloyd Axworthy and John Bolton on the United Nations The contributors discuss nearly every nation in the world including extensive information on institutions political parties leaders and the sources of political mobilization and conflict The volume also includes biographies of more than seventy five political leaders and thinkers who have shaped the contemporary political world Articles include detailed discussions of critical historical developments and events concepts
