The World On A String How To Become A Freelance Foreign Correspondent:

The World on a String Al Goodman, John Pollack, 2014-06-17 With the help of veteran journalists Alan Goodman and John Pollack's The World on a String young reporters need not spend years struggling in obscurity to land coveted foreign assignments. In fact, technological advances and cost cutting at major media companies have created unprecedented opportunities for enterprising journalists to succeed abroad as freelance correspondents, stringers for newspapers, magazines, radio, television, wire services, and Internet outlets. The World on a String: How to Become a Freelance Foreign Correspondent is the step-by-step manual that describes how to choose your region wisely, select the right equipment, establish vital editorial contacts at home and abroad, make ends meet while filing stories to various media, prepare for the risks of reporting from war zones, work effectively with distant editors. Colorful anecdotes and practical advice from successful stringers around the world highlight the trials and triumphs of freelancing abroad, enabling you to assess and take control of your career in the competitive world of journalism.

International Jobs Nina Segal, Eric Kocher, 2009-03-05 From teaching English to analyzing intelligence for the federal government, the international field offers a broad spectrum of exciting job opportunities. For over twenty years, International Jobs has been the authoritative guide for researching and launching an international career. In this newly revised sixth edition, veteran career counselor Nina Segal updates Eric Kocher's classic reference, providing all the tools necessary for understanding the complex international job market and finding the right employment options. With the tried and true components of previous editions—practical résumé and interviewing advice, market analysis, and insightful day-in-the-life stories—as well as substantially increased Web resources, International Jobs is the essential comprehensive reference for students and established professionals alike who want a career in the global marketplace.

Air Tony Hill,2016-09-01 With the outbreak of the Second World War a new breed of reporters joined the ranks of war correspondents and through the reach and power of radio Australians back home heard their voices and their stories shaped from the sounds of battle out of the white noise of the ether Australian forces defended our long shoreline against the threat of invasion and more than 500 000 Australians went into battle overseas They fought on the dusty soil of the Middle East and North Africa in the snow topped hills of Greece on the beaches of the Pacific and in the sweltering jungles of Malaya and New Guinea And the first ABC war correspondents were on the frontlines with them The story of these correspondents is a story of Australians at war and a tale of personal struggle humour tragedy and achievement From Chester Wilmot s gripping accounts of the Siege of Tobruk to Dudley Leggett trekking with the diggers through the mud of the Kokoda Trail Haydon Lennard helping to free Australian nurses from a Japanese prison camp and John Elliott s shocking death in the final campaign in Borneo ABC correspondents shared the highs lows and the dangers of the frontline with the troops And the photographs of the correspondents in the field and the ephemera that has survived the torn pages blotted crossed out and hastily typed scripts that are reproduced in the book bring these experiences to life Tony Hill s own experience as a foreign correspondent led him in search of the first ABC war correspondents and to a compelling and largely untold story He is passionate about telling this story of the war about a remarkable group of men and how they reported from the warfront how they changed the reporting of war and how the war changed their lives The Annual Register 1998 Keesing's
