Contemporary American Fiction in the European Classroom Laurence W. Mazzeno, Sue Norton, 2022-04-06 This book offers insight into the ways students enrolled in European classrooms in higher education come to understand American experience through its literary fiction which for decades has been a key component of English department offerings and American Studies curricula across the continent and in Great Britain and Ireland The essays provide an understanding of how post World War II American writers some already elevated to canonical status and some not are represented in European university classrooms and why they have been chosen for inclusion in coursework The book will be of interest to scholars and teachers of American literature and American studies and to students in American literature and American studies courses

Teaching Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's "Americanah" in an English Foreign Language Classroom, 2022-06-30 Essay from the year 2019 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Pedagogy Literature Studies grade 12 Justus Liebig University Giessen course Culture in the EFLC language English abstract Literature has always played an essential role in the EFLC Students have always had to deal with complicated and challenging works of literature And not only in their native language but also in their second language It is considered that in this way they can improve their competences and language skills But it is also believed to raise intercultural awareness by reading for example African literature Most of the literature that is chosen for being read in school consists of known classic literature such as Shakespeare Goethe or other white and male writers All you see in today's world is literature about love about science fiction and so on African literature was not about that of course there are a bunch of writings about that But that's not the main theme of the literature African literature is dealing mostly with situations or themes that occurred or are occurring in their culture The first writings from that time were about slavery and especially about its suffering and the pain that slaves had to go through It is mostly about the experience of living in a segregated society This paper will examine how important African literature is It has to be mentioned that African literature is not the only but one of many possibilities of literature that can be used Since it is not easy to discuss African literature in general this essay will focus mainly on the novel Americanah by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie This book is meant to be representative for the African Literature My teacher recommended this novel to us in my school days when we read Mother to Mother by Sindiwe Magona This term paper will investigate the potential of this book
