introducing the present volume to the Public the Editors feel that a few words of explanation may be desirable in regard to the trust assigned to them and the manner in which they have in so far attempted to discharge it In the interview which at Dr Cunningham s request they had with him within a few hours of his death he committed to them the charge of his whole writings and manuscripts connected with the College to be deposited in the Library and to be used and applied to any purpose they judged right stating that he gave them absolute power to do in the matter as they considered to be best for his character and the good of the Church The charge thus verbally intrusted to them was formally and legally confirmed by the Trustees acting under Dr Cunningham s settlement so that the Editors became invested with the character of his Literary Executors and with the full powers and responsibilities attaching to such an office About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
