Theresa Vaughn Broadway Years 2:

Theresa Vaughn, Leonard Schneider, 2015-12-18 Theresa Vaughn the Broadway years This is volume 2 of the true story of Theresa Vaughn and Broadway as the 19th century closed My earlier book volume 1 Miss Theresa Vaughn explored Theresa's origin her early years and 19th century America I believe you will agree Theresa and the 19th century are lost cultural gems She created a very beautiful unique branch of music by artistically connecting the new banjo with beautiful ballads comic opera and romance I believe Theresa was at the very top of a special peak in our music cultural world and has never been equaled Strong questionable corruptions influences came on board after Theresa's passing in 1903 Commercialism corporatism political isms even organized crime So regarding the onset of the 20th century in general you could say we're not in Kansas anymore culture and music provides a convenient lens to view the overall condition of a society My research on Theresa's familiarity with 1880 Buckbee banjos and songs she loved hopefully allows me to illuminate how Theresa likely played these banjos with their many voicings I'm now preparing instructional and performance videos to supplement these two books
