Three Fisted Tales Of Bob:

Three-fisted Tales of "Bob" Ivan Stang, 1990 Invented Religions Carole M. Cusack, 2016-05-06 Utilizing contemporary scholarship on secularization individualism and consumer capitalism this book explores religious movements founded in the West which are intentionally fictional Discordianism the Church of All Worlds the Church of the SubGenius and Jediism Their continued appeal and success principally in America but gaining wider audience through the 1980s and 1990s is chiefly as a result of underground publishing and the internet This book deals with immensely popular subject matter Jediism developed from George Lucas Star Wars films the Church of the Flying Spaghetti Monster founded by 26 year old student Bobby Henderson in 2005 as a protest against the teaching of Intelligent Design in schools Discordianism and the Church of the SubGenius which retain strong followings and participation rates among college students The Church of All Worlds focus on Gaia theology and environmental issues makes it a popular focus of attention The continued success of these groups of Invented Religions provide a unique opportunity to explore the nature of late post modern religious forms including the use of fiction as part of a bricolage for spirituality identity formation and personal orientation Fiction, Invention and Hyper-reality Carole M. Cusack, Pavol Kosnáč, 2016-11-18 The twentieth century was a period of rapid change for religion Secularisation resulted in a dramatic fall in church attendance in the West and the 1950s and 1960s saw the introduction of new religions including the International Society for Krishna Consciousness ISKCON the Church of Scientology and the Children of God New religions were regarded with suspicion by society in general and Religious Studies scholars alike until the 1990s when the emergence of a second generation of new new religions based on popular cultural forms including films novels computer games and comic books and highly individualistic spiritualities confirmed the utter transformation of the religio spiritual landscape Indeed Scientology and ISKCON appeared almost traditional and conservative when compared to the radically de institutionalised eclectic parodic fun loving and experimental fiction based invented and hyper real religions In this book scholarly treatments of cutting edge religious and spiritual trends are brought into conversation with contributions by representatives of Duddism the Church of All Worlds the Temple of the Jedi Order and Tolkien spirituality groups This book will simultaneously entertain shock challenge and delight scholars of religious studies as well as those with a wider interest in new religious movements Historical Dictionary of New Religious Movements George D. Chryssides, 2012 New religious movements commonly known as cults are defined as organizations that have arisen within the last 200 years Most treatments of these movements have typically resorted to sensationalism rather than objectivity and New religious movements tend to receive negative media publicity Despite their unfavorable portrayal in popular culture however new religious movements are a global phenomenon and much remains to be studied about these movements In this newly updated second edition of the Historical Dictionary of New Religious Movements George D Chryssides traces the rise and development of new religious movements throughout the world An updated introduction summarizes the phenomenon of new religious movements and lays out the changes to the dictionary since the 2001 edition while the main body of the dictionary consists of close to 600 cross referenced entries on key figures ideas themes and places related to various new religious movements An index organizes the information in the dictionary and a comprehensive bibliography leads the researcher to further sources This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about new religious movements

Magic, Rhetoric, and Literacy William A. Covino, 1994-07-28 This book presents a selective introductory reading of key texts in the history of magic from antiquity forward in order to construct a suggestive conceptual framework for disrupting our conventional notions about rhetoric and literacy Offering an overarching pointed synthesis of the interpenetration of magic rhetoric and literacy William A Covino draws from theorists ranging from Plato and Cornelius Agrippa to Paulo Freire and Mary Daly and analyzes the different magics that operate in Renaissance occult philosophy and Romantic literature as well as in popular indicators of mass literacy such as The Oprah Winfrey Show and The National Enquirer Magic Rhetoric and Literacy distinguishes two kinds of magic rhetoric that continue to affect our psychological and cultural life today Generative magic rhetoric creates novel possibilities for action within a broad sympathetic universe of signs and symbols Arresting magic rhetoric attempts to induce automatistic behavior by inculcating rules and maxims that function like magic ritual formulas JUST SAY NO In this connection the literate individual is one who can interrogate arresting language and generate counter spells The Luckiest Unlucky Man Alive Bill Goss, 2012-10-18 Balderdash Antti P. Balk, 2012 Discussing everything from God to Santa Claus Prozac to the Taliban and beyond the author asserts that ethics is balderdash
