Tourism Management Dissertation Guide:

Student's Guide to Writing Dissertations and Theses in Tourism Studies and Related Disciplines Tim

Coles, David Timothy Duval, Gareth Shaw, 2013 This book intends to take the stress and anxiety out of doing a dissertation in tourism studies and related disciplines The dissertation process is examined from the germination of an idea to the submission presentation and assessment of the final document We offer a framework for conducting dissertations in the English speaking world which students can adopt to varying degrees in their research at the undergraduate and masters levels We aim to debunk the popular myths and common pitfalls of doing a dissertation Rather than view the dissertation as a single overwhelming project the dissertation is presented as a series of more modest manageable yet crucially inter linked tasks that all students can successfully complete through effective time management

An International Handbook of Tourism Education David Airey, John Tribe, 2006-08-11 As tourism matures as an academic subject and the number of tourism higher education providers continues to expand world wide there is an increasing interest in its educational aspects At the same time the development of research into education issues related to tourism means that there is now a developing literature on the subject This international handbook offers a timely evaluation of the state of the art of tourism higher education The book brings together expert contributors from around the world to present current thinking and practice about what is now a major element of education provision world wide It is structured round four key themes Curriculum International perspective Teaching learning and assessment Resources progression and quality Its global survey of tourism education offers a comprehensive basis for comparative review In addition to setting out the development and current provision of tourism education it also addresses cutting edge issues such as PhD education non formal education cultural issues in learning research and teaching e learning and e assessment It offers practical advice for the design delivery evaluation and resourcing of courses and concludes with a reflective agenda of issues for the future
