Freerk Ch. Kamma

Wending Maandblad Voor Evangelie En Cultuur:

Koreri Messianic Movements in the Biak-Numfor Culture Area Freerk Ch. Kamma, 2013-12-01 This study developed out of the personal experience of daily life that I and my family had in the years 1932-1942 among the Biak speaking people of the Radja Ampat area Sorong West New Guinea. Our family had become integrated into the community as far as possible and we used the Biak language every day. Three of the movements described in this book took place in that area so that I was able to study them under the favorable conditions of direct participation and observation. The first edition of the book in 1954 in Dutch was the writer's doctoral thesis Ph.D. written under the guidance of the late Professor J. P. B. de Josselin de Jong. I am very grateful to the Royal Institute of Linguistics and Anthropology Leiden for publishing the revised English edition in its Translation Series. The Biak material deserves more readers than the Dutch edition was able to reach. Katholiek cultureel tijdschrift streven, 1949 Handbook of Dutch Church History Herman J. Selderhuis, 2014-12-10 Herman Selderhuis as editor of this volume has brought together a team of experts resulting in a unique approach since each chapter is co-written by a Catholic and a Protestant author who have all integrated the latest research results. Each section begins with a brief historiographical overview. The same time ecclesiastical events are always set within a greater framework of political, social and cultural developments for which reason each author has taken the liberty to describe its own method. The user will find in this book tables, diagrams and illustrations. Also many source texts are integrated in the narration. These texts are intended to bring the described events and people closer to the reader and as it were to let them speak the words. The name of the book as Handbook of the church history of the Netherlands immediately brings to mind three problematic complexes which are relevant to its user. First there is the nature of a handbook that is intended to be a good tool but also has its limitations; it stimulates and necessitates the use of further books. Second the area The Netherlands is a plurality and that is also noticeable in its church history for each region, town and village has its own church history. Third the history of the church for sure is the most important aspect but this history can only be understood if it is described in the context of political and social developments. Anthropologica, 1999 Includes reports of meetings of the institute. Annual Bibliography of the History of the Printed Book and Libraries Dept. of Special Collections of the Koninklijke Bibliotheek, 2003-12-31 The Annual Bibliography of the History of the Printed Book and Libraries aims at recording articles of scholarly value which relate to the history of the printed book to the history of arts, crafts, techniques and equipment and of the economic, social and cultural environment involved in its production, distribution, conservation and description. Pieter Saenredam, The Utrecht Work Liesbeth M. Helmus, 2002-01-01 Pieter Saenredam 1597-1665 was one of the magical painters of 17th century Holland, a time known as the Golden Age of Dutch Art. He spent his career immortalizing the churches of Holland in drawings and paintings. Working through a series of perspective drawings to the finished painting, he made innumerable fine adjustments to architectural details to create what may be justly called spaces of wondrous perfection of proportion and luminosity Pieter Saenredam The Utrecht Work is published to coincide with an exhibition of Saenredam's drawings and paintings originally held at the Centraal Museum Utrecht and on view from April 16 through July 7 2002 at the Getty Museum This elegant volume brings together more than sixty drawings and paintings depicting the beautiful and historically venerable churches of the Dutch city of Utrecht Authority in Question Hans van de Breevaart, 2005
