Western Perspectives Mediterranean Cultural Antiquity:

Western Perspectives on the Mediterranean Andreas Fischer, Ian N. Wood, 2014 A high level scholarly collection of articles on the transmission of knowledge and culture from a Mediterranean world politically fragmented by the fall of the Western Roman empire and the Islamic expansion into Latin Europe 400 800 AD The ^AOxford Handbook of the Merovingian World Bonnie Effros, Isabel Moreira, 2020-05-01 In recent decades the Merovingian world has become more visible in Anglophone historical studies The forty six essays included in this collection highlight the vitality and importance of the Merovingian kingdoms in the fifth through eighth centuries Being Christian in Vandal Africa Robin Whelan, 2024-05-10 Being Christian in Vandal Africa investigates conflicts over Christian orthodoxy in the Vandal kingdom the successor to Roman rule in North Africa ca 439 to 533 c e Exploiting neglected texts author Robin Whelan exposes a sophisticated culture of disputation between Nicene Catholic and Homoian Arian Christians and explores their rival claims to political and religious legitimacy These contests sometimes violent are key to understanding the wider and much debated issues of identity and state formation in the post imperial West Mobility in the Early Middle Ages, and Beyond – Mobilität im Frühmittelalter und darüber hinaus Laury Sarti, Helene von Trott zu Solz, 2025-04-21 This interdisciplinary volume deals with new methodological approaches to studying early medieval mobility The chapters address innovative methods from the fields of history archaeology and the natural sciences discussing the potential and limits of each methodological approach and shining the spotlight on historical and archaeological as well as scientific methods Byzantium, Britain and the West Anthea Harris, 2003 In a surprising departure from orthodoxy and a radical new interpretation of the evidence Anthea Harris argues that the Roman Empire in its surviving Byzantine form continued to shape life in the West including Britain at least until the 7th century A D Ancient West & East, 2009 Civilization in the West Mark A. Kishlansky, Patrick J. Geary, Patricia O'Brien, 2001 Civilization in the West blends social and political history into a fascinating narrative that brings history to life The authors tell a compelling story of Western Civilization that is enhanced by an image based approach Pictorial chapter openers draw students in by illustrating a dominant theme of the chapter and exploring the dramatic impression each image makes in reinforcing that theme The presentation of geography guides students around the changing contours of the West through both standard maps and Geographic Tours of Europe The greater number of maps and tours combine to make this text the strongest possible program for teaching historical geography 151 total maps as compared to Chambers the second highest at 106 The addition of Discovering Western Civilization Online new end of chapter website URLs makes this the first Western Civilization book to date to include these resources The Western Perspective Philip Cannistraro, Cannistrar, John J. Reich, John Reich, 1998-09 THE WESTERN PERSPECTIVE is a history of Western civilization from 8000 B C to the present In addition to the chief political developments this text offers students comprehensive treatments of economic trends cultural and intellectual movements daily life and social change the changing position and role of women and the status of ethnic and religious groups Europe's history is placed in the context of world history developments in Africa Asia the Americas and the Pacific are discussed in terms of their relationship with events in Europe

The Cambridge Ancient History, 2000 The Cultural Diversity of European Unity Wilhelmus Antonius Arts, Jacques A. Hagenaars, Loek Halman, 2003 This book investigates and compares the values and dynamics of value changes in important life domains of the Europeans from an economic political social and religious moral point of view and explores the relationships between value orientations and societies structural characteristics Regional Perspectives in Archaeology Richard Tabor, 2004 This book inspired by the author's work on the South Cadbury Environs Project considers the extent to which regional narratives derived from archaeological survey are conditioned by techniques and sampling strategies Its principal sources are reports of fieldwork in Africa North and South America and Europe as well as recent technical and theoretical publications Recognising the hermeneutical process which informs every stage of the archaeologist's work the author attempts to trace through the transformation of data towards higher social and ideological accounts A means for conceptualising archaeological space on a regional scale is constructed to optimise the efficacy of the choice and distribution of techniques and the subsequent analysis of data To this end aspects of several surveys are scrutinised This culminates in a method for classifying surveys according to their distribution of resources their spatial resolution and their chronological resolution New International Encyclopaedia, 1929 The Cambridge Ancient History Averil Cameron, Bryan Ward-Perkins, Michael Whitby, 2000 With Volume 14 The Cambridge Ancient History concludes its story This latest volume embraces the wide range of approaches and scholarship which have in recent decades transformed our view of Late Antiquity In particular traditional political and social history has been enormously enhanced by integrating the rich evidence of Christian writing and the constantly expanding results of archaeological research A picture emerges of a period of considerable military and political disruption but also of vibrant intellectual and cultural activity The volume begins with a series of narrative chapters These are followed by sections on government and institutions economy and society and religion and culture A section on the provinces and the non Roman world marks the rise of new and distinct political and cultural entities This volume and the CAH ends in around AD 600 before the Arab conquests shattered for ever what remained of the unity of the Roman world The New International Encyclopaedia, 1924 The Jews of Europe in the Middle Ages Alfred Haverkamp, Karin Birk, Werner Transier, Markus Wener, Historisches Museum der Pfalz (Speyer, Germany), 2004 Featuring abundant illustrations of religious historical and cultural objects and documents this book traces the history of Judaism during the medieval period from the 11th to the early 16th century Two major centers of Jewish culture emerged during the Middle Ages that of the Ashkenazi Jews concentrated in the Rhineland particularly in Speyer Worms and Mainz and that of the Sephardic Jews located on the Iberian peninsula Both of these traditional populations experienced a period of great cultural bloom between the 11th and 14th centuries and the intellectual history and social life of European society as a whole

were influenced significantly by Judaism during this era This book focuses on the relationship between the two traditional Jewish groups and their non Jewish environment offering interesting insights into Jewish religious rituals and customs the structure of Jewish communities and the everyday lives of Jews It also casts light on the work and influence of Jewish scholars in religion philosophy and other fields while emphasizing the contributions of medieval Jews to the development of European society and economy The New International Encyclopædia Frank Moore Colby,Talcott Williams,1929

The Heritage of World Civilizations Albert M. Craig,William A. Graham,Steven Ozment,Donald Kagan,Frank M. Turner,2002-07 For undergraduate level World Civilization or World History courses This comprehensive accessible survey of world history has been extensively revised to provide an even more global and comparative perspective on the events and processes that have shaped our increasingly interdependent world Written by leading scholars in their respective fields Heritage of World Civilizations 6 e combines unusually strong and thorough coverage of the unique heritage of Asian African Islamic Western and American civilizations while highlighting the role of the world s great religious and philosophical traditions India-West Asia Relations M. H. Ilias,P. J. Vincent,2007 This study represents an attempt to investigate the cultural component of India West Asia relations from various angles It is an attempt to fill the vacuum in existing literature on cultural aspects of India West Asia relations It not only and widely held myths regarding clash of civilization thesis and globalization Cult in Context David A. Barrowclough,Caroline Malone,2007 Gods deities symbolism deposition cosmology and intentionality are all features of the study of early ritual and cult Archaeology has great difficulties in providing satisfactory interpretation or recognition of these elusive but important parts of ancient society and methodologies are often poorly equipped to explore the evidence This collection of papers explores a wide range of prehistoric and early historic archaeological contexts from Britain Europe and beyond where monuments architectural structures megaliths art caves ritual activity and symbolic remains offer exciting glimpses into ancient belief systems and cult behaviour Different theoretical and practical approaches are demonstrated offering both new directions and considered conclusions to the many problems of studying the archaeology of cult and ritual Central to the volume is an exploration of early Malta and its intriguing Temple Culture set in a broad perspective by the discussion and theoretical approaches presented in different geographical and chronological contexts Classical Views ,1992
