point in their life Fear is a natural response for humans and has its place to help keep us safe However living in fear is counter productive and is not an option if we are going to get through any difficult circumstances We cannot allow ourselves to get stuck there and dwell on these negative issues Believe it or not there is a way to experience peace in the midst of all of this and that is what I will be unpacking in this book We have many choices in life Every day we re making more choices than we realize Peace is another choice that we can make over fear and anxiety It takes recognizing where our mind is going and living with the intention to make a U turn and choosing peace In this book I will be taking a hard look at fear anxiety and depression I define them discussing the symptoms and causes of each and how to overcome them One cannot read this book without being changed from the inside out if the shared truths are taken seriously acted upon and allowed to permeate and become a reality in the reader s heart and mind Unfortunately not knowing how to respond often causes one to react to their depression anxieties fears etc in ways that promote more of the same Some are plagued a lot more than others and some have learned to cope better than others but there is relief for all of us if we know where to look for it That is what I hope to accomplish through this short booklet It is a quick easy read and well worth your time I have learned the antidote to the fear and uncertainty that often leads to anxiety and depression I want more than anything to share it with you because I am confident you can find relief for your souls through the message I believe the Lord has given me to share with you
