

Providing Protection to Unaccompanied and Separated Children in Europe

KIND achieves safety and stability and secures rights for unaccompanied and separated children in Europe through high-quality legal assistance, capacity building, and advocacy.

Children are increasingly seeking safety in Europe, driven from their home countries by conflict and other violence, persecution, discrimination, and extreme hardship; some children arrive alone, while others are separated from their family in flight.

By accessing accurate, child-friendly information on their rights, and support to navigate the complex legal procedures they face, these children can secure the safety, status, and sustainable solutions that they need.

KIND has been partnering with pro bono law firms and nongovernmental organizations (NGOs) in the European Union since 2019 to ensure that children on the move have access to lawyers and to advocate for their rights in Europe. The work is an expansion of KIND's model in the United States, where KIND and its pro bono partners have provided legal representation and psychosocial assistance to thousands of unaccompanied children since 2008 and in the UK since 2016.

When the conflict escalated in Ukraine in 2022, KIND harnessed its presence and expertise across Europe to respond to the needs of children displaced from Ukraine. Read more about our work contributing to the Ukraine response here.

How KIND Protects Children in Europe

KIND works with partners, expert consultants, and local staff in the European Union to protect unaccompanied and separated children's rights and well-being through our holistic model.

Providing child-centered, trauma-informed legal assistance through our NGO and pro bono legal partners, to ensure children are rightly identified as children, can access international protection and sustainable solutions such as residency and citizenship, and can reunify with family.

Informing children about their legal rights through Know Your Rights sessions and other tools.

Increasing the capacity of actors working with children on the move and strengthening protection systems for children through trainings and other technical assistance.

Engaging in policy recommendations and advocacy to ensure that laws, policies, procedures, and practices for unaccompanied and separated children are integrated, rights-based, and promote their best interests.
