What makes a Bruegel a Bruegel? Richard Mühlberger, Pieter Bruegel (de Oudere), 1993 What Makes a Bruegel a Bruegel? Richard Mühlberger, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1993 From the former Vice Director for Education at the world renowned Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City comes an art appreciation series unlike any other In a handsomely designed innovative format this unique series explores the qualities that make one artist's work different from another Full color reproductions Graphic Worlds of Peter Bruegel the Elder H. Arthur Klein, Pieter Bruegel, 1963-06-01 Renowned for his effervescent and rollicking paintings of Flemish life Peter Bruegel the Elder also holds a place among the world's finest engraving designers This collection contains 64 of his engravings plus a woodcut arranged in two parts The first depicts the outer world of nature and man including landscapes ships and the sea and memorable portraits of sixteenth century Flanders citizens from aristocrats and burghers to villagers and peasants The second part envisions the inner worlds of imagination morality and religion with scenes from the Gospels and Apocrypha In addition the book offers cogent and stimulating commentaries by H Arthur Klein that provide details of Bruegel's life and influences as well as his techniques Many of these prints served as models for subsequent Bruegel canvases and each image is accompanied by an essay that places it within its historical context A unique survey of the best and most magical work of one of history's greatest printmakers this volume offers a prized addition to the collections of all connoisseurs especially those interested in the art of engraving What Makes a Bruegel a Bruegel? Richard Mühlberger, 1993 What makes a Rembrandt and Rembrandt Or a van Gogh a van Gogh This series explains what makes one artist's work different from any other's Recognizing and appreciating the work of a particular artist can be as easy as spotting a friend's handwriting

Pieter Bruegel's Historical Imagination Stephanie Porras, 2018-04-26 The question of how to understand Bruegel's art has cast the artist in various guises as a moralizing satirist comedic humanist celebrator of vernacular traditions and proto ethnographer Stephanie Porras reorients these apparently contradictory accounts arguing that the debate about how to read Bruegel has obscured his pictures complex relation to time and history Rather than viewing Bruegel's art as simply illustrating the social realities of his day Porras asserts that Bruegel was an artist deeply concerned with the past In playing with the boundaries of the familiar and the foreign history and the present Bruegel's images engaged with the fraught question of Netherlandish history in the years just prior to the Dutch Revolt when imperial religious and national identities were increasingly drawn into tension His pictorial style and his manipulation of traditional iconographies reveal the complex relations unique to this moment among classical antiquity local history and art history An important reassessment of Renaissance attitudes toward history and of Renaissance humanism in the Low Countries this volume traces the emergence of archaeological and anthropological practices in historical thinking their intersections with artistic production and the developing concept of local art history Albrecht Altdorfer and the Origins of Landscape Christopher S. Wood, Albrecht

Altdorfer, 1993-12 Altdorfer's landscapes offer a densely textured interpretation of that quintessentially German place the forest interior As Wood explains however these scenes far from doctrinally innocent the forest that Altdorfer painted drew and etched is both a refuge from Christian rites and a mythical setting of idolatry In producing his landscapes Altdorfer flaunted and exaggerated the formal principles of a regional pictorial tradition Wood demonstrates that the abrasive surface effects incessant ornamental movement and structural impenetrability of these pictures make them the incunabula of a self resistance to literal readings Altdorfer's landscapes also resemble the exactly contemporary pastorals and allegories of Giovanni Bellini Lorenzo Lotto and Giorgione Because of Altdorfer's influence on the next generation of German and Netherlandish artists his work forms a crucial link between Northern religious imagery and the modern development of landscape of a genre
