Happy Birding Harold R. Lee, 2015-12-27 Imagine yourself lying in your bed The morning sun is just peeking through your window Along with the sun you hear the melodious song of birds chirping their good mornings to each other and to you Have you ever wondered what those birds looked like Why they are close enough for you to hear What interesting characteristics they have about them Bird watching is a sport that has been around for years In fact today bird watching is the second fastest growing hobby in America bested only by gardening A whole new language has emerged along with it Those in the know also refer to bird watching simply as birding and the people who do it as birders People of all ages enjoy seeking out the birds of their region watching them in their natural habitat and enjoying the songs they have to offer Birds can be fascinating creatures with much to offer those who care to study their lives Much can be learned from where they roost how they fly and what they sing We can even go so far as to say that watching birds can reveal things about nature and

The Stillness of the Living Forest John Harvey, 2018-11-13. It started with a personal commitment to sit an hour each week for a full year in the same spot in the woods. John Harvey's intention was to reconnect with nature and observe the flow of natural life through the four seasons. As Harvey settled into his weekly routine of visiting his sit spot and fully engaging his senses, rich and illuminating experiences began to unfold. His encounters with nature included seeing and listening to a plethora of birds from tiny wrens to large hawks from sweet singing warblers to rattling woodpeckers, enjoying the sight of seasonal plants such as wild violets, trout lily, and skunk cabbage sitting out in the open during weather events that ranged from glorious warm summer sunshine to an Alberta clipper in the winter, and spotting the occasional deer and even a black bear. In all cases, Harvey sought to observe, listen, appreciate, and learn. Learn he did about the birds, animals, plants, and trees that surrounded and intrigued him. But his remarkable encounters with nature also facilitated self-discovery, fostered insight, and nurtured empathy and intuition.
