Academic Writing for Geographers James A. Tyner, 2023-08-21 There are many how to books on writing for academics none of these however relate specifically to the discipline of geography In this book the author identifies the principle modes of academic writing that graduate students and early career faculty will encounter specifically focusing on those forms expected of geographers that is those modes that are reviewed by academic peers This book is readily accessible to senior undergraduate and graduate students and early career faculty who may feel intimidated by the process of writing This volume is not strictly a how to or step by step manual for writing an article or book rather through the use of real concrete examples from published and unpublished works the author demystifies the process of different types of scholarly pieces geographers have to write with the specific needs and challenges of the discipline in mind Although chapters are thematic based e.g. stand alone chapters on book reviews articles and books the manuscript is structured around the concept of story telling for it is the author's contention that all writing whether a scientific study or more humanist essay is a form of story telling

Writing With Emotion, Tension, and Conflict Cheryl St. John, 2013-10-31 Craft an Emotionally Charged Story That Will Resonate with Readers Emotional impact shouldn't be dropped into your novel as an afterthought or forced upon your story with a pair of pliers and an iron grip It should be carefully sewn into the fabric of the story to create tension filled moments that will keep readers turning pages In Writing with Emotion Tension Conflict you'll learn how to layer emotional moments and deep connections to create a tapestry filled with conflict pathos and genuine feeling Create emotional depth conflict and tension in your novel by carefully crafting your plot characters setting word choice and more Learn what makes readers tick and what will elicit the strongest emotional responses Write believable emotional scenes and dialogue and trim away the sappiness When writing a novel your ultimate goal is to make readers smile weep rage and laugh right along with your characters Writing with Emotion Tension Conflict will show you how to evoke a multitude of feelings in your readers and keep them coming back for more
