Art After Conceptual Art Alexander Alberro, Sabeth Buchmann, 2006-10-27 Well known art historians from Europe and the Americas discuss the influence of conceptualism on art since the 1970s Art After Conceptual Art tracks the various legacies of conceptualist practice over the past three decades This collection of essays by art historians from Europe and the Americas introduces and develops the idea that conceptual art generated several different and even contradictory forms of art practice Some of these contested commonplace assumptions of what art is others served to buttress those assumptions The bulk of the volume features newly written and highly innovative essays challenging standard interpretations of the legacy of conceptualism and discussing the influence of conceptualism's varied practices on art since the 1970s The essays explore topics as diverse as the interrelationships between conceptualism and institutional critique neoexpressionist painting and conceptualist paradigms conceptual art's often ignored complicity with design and commodity culture the specific forms of identity politics taken up by the reception of conceptual art and conceptualism's North South and East West dynamics A few texts that continue to be crucial for critical debates within the fields of conceptual and postconceptual art practice history and theory have been reprinted in order to convey the vibrant and ongoing discussion on the status of art after conceptual art Taken together the essays will inspire an exploration of the relationship between postconceptualist practices and the beginnings of contemporary art Distributed for the Generali Foundation Vienna

Dutch Art Sheila D. Muller, 2013-07-04 An illustrated feast for the eye and intellect Dutch Art explores developments in art art history art criticism and cultural history of the Netherlands from the artists workshops for the Utrecht Dom in 1475 to the latest movements of the 1990s it is lavishly illustrated with 147 black and white photographs and 16 pages in full color More than 100 internationally recognized scholars museum professionals artists and art critics contributed signed essays to this monumental work including historians sociologists and literary historians

Inside/out Asia Society. Galleries, San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, 1998-01-01 The late twentieth century has been marked by momentous political economic and social change throughout the Chinese world Deeply rooted cultural assumptions and ancient visual traditions have been challenged by rapid modernization and conflicting global ethnic and local identities Inside Out New Chinese Art was the first major international exhibition to explore the impact of these challenges on artists in the People's Republic of China Hong Kong Taiwan and those of the 1980s Diaspora The multifaceted exhibition and accompanying catalog encompass an extensive range of artistic forms including installation video and performance art as well as more traditional media such as oils and ink The art is grouped according to themes some specific to regions and others that reflect widespread and overlapping trends With the inclusion of ambiguous territories like Hong Kong and Taiwan the exhibition opens up a perspective of modern Chinese art from the outside as well as a looking out from the inside The catalog features essays by eminent Chinese art scholars and curators along with leading curators and historians of Western art Together they promote Chinese art's rightful place in the contemporary global cultural arena and at the same time acknowledge the influence of its rich heritage The diversity and freshness of the exhibition reflects the explosion of creativity among Chinese artists during the past decade The ironic social commentary of Li Shan's The Rouge Series no 24 the apartment art of artists reacting against the traditional patronage of large museums and corporations and Wang Jin's sly humor in portraying consumer fetishes in today's China are a few examples of the spirited artistry awaiting the viewers of Inside Out

No More Masterpieces Lucy Bradnock, 2021-01-01 This groundbreaking account of postwar American art traces the profound influence of Antonin Artaud Proposing an original reassessment of art from the 1950s to the 1970s No More Masterpieces reveals how artistic practice in postwar America was profoundly shaped by the work of the rebellious French poet and dramatist Antonin Artaud 1896 1948 A generation of artists mobilized Artaud's countercultural ideas to imagine new forms of representation and to redefine the relationship between artist and audience The book shows how Artaud's radical writings inspired the experimental theatrical work of John Cage Rachel Rosenthal and Allan Kaprow the attack on artistic and social conventions launched by assemblage artists Wallace Berman and Bruce Conner and the feminist work of Carolee Schneemann and Nancy Spero Lucy Bradnock traces the dissemination of Artaud's writings in America and demonstrates how his interest in political and cultural disorder

the dangers of authority and the unreliability of representation found fertile ground in the context of the Cold War disillusionment with the ideals of Abstract Expressionism and the early years of identity politics
