Theology Against Religion Constructive Dialogues With Bonhoeffer And Barth:

Theology against Religion Tom Greggs, 2011-10-27 This book asks the question what is religion from a theological perspective In an age in which religion has reasserted itself on national and international stages Theology against Religion argues that we should take seriously the critique of religion and engage with that critique theologically The book argues that theologizing the critique of religion was central to the theological purposes of Karl Barth and Dietrich Bonhoeffer and that Barth and Bonhoeffer should be seen as traveling along the same trajectory in terms of their theological approaches to religion It is this trajectory that this book seeks to explore in thinking with and beyond Bonhoeffer and by identifying a series of themes around which construction engagements can take place The result is an exciting series of discussions which take seriously the interplay of the religious the secular pluralism and the concept of God with chapters on salvation the church the public square and other faiths

Creation and Religious Pluralism David Cheetham, 2020-08-21 In the well worn debates about religious pluralism and the theology of religions there have been many different rubrics used to account for comprehend or engage with the religious other This book is chiefly a work of Christian theology and seeks to bring the doctrine of creation and the theology of religions into dialogue and in so doing it comes at things from a different direction than other works It contains an extensive exploration of the doctrine of creation and asks how it might intervene distinctively in these discourses to produce a new conceptual and practical topography It will consider inter religious engagement from the perspective of the doctrine of creatio ex nihilo that forms the dominant view in the Jewish Christian and Islamic traditions The book pays close consideration to anthropology i e creaturehood the quotidian and wisdom the idea of sabbath human action and work and vivifying the immanent through a consideration of some representative phenomenologists The book will develop these ideas in a more practical direction by considering sacraments and rituals in the public sphere as well as attempting to describe the kind of creational politics that might bring traditions into dialogue Whilst these themes challenge more conventional ways of considering relations between religions such themes because they are different from concerns commonly found in the literature can also be profitably engaged with across the spectrum of opinion i e exclusivist or pluralist etc Thus whilst the position adopted in this work is creatio ex nihilo part of the motivation is to review the ways in which this focus helps to broaden rather than limit the discussion

Bonhoeffer's New Beginning Andrew D. DeCort, 2018-09-15 Bonhoeffer's New Beginning investigates the ethics of making new beginnings after devastating moral rupture The work argues that new beginnings must be made in order to sustain the fundamental convictions that it is good to exist and that life in the world with others should be loved without exclusion Bonhoeffer's ethics of new beginning is set in conversation with the thought of four moral philosophers Friedrich Nietzsche Hannah Arendt Jonathan Glover and Jonathan Lear DeCort argues that Bonhoeffer's ethics of new beginning opens and energizes a more promising world affirming moral vision with radical hope for new beginnings vis vis the perceived absence of God in the face of devastation

Barth and

Bonhoeffer as Contributors to a Post-Liberal Ecclesiology Tom Gregg, 2021-12-16 This volume uncovers Barth's and Bonhoeffer's influences on one another and reads them side by side revealing the insights both theologians bring to today's secular and religious context Gregg addresses the meaning and the extent of salvation God's relation to time and eternity sin and confession and inter faith dialogue for a church that critiques its own practice of religion This is a lively exploration of the implications of two great theologians work for a completely secular and religious world The Church in a World of Religions Tom Gregg, 2021-12-16 In this collection of essays Tom Gregg explores the nature of the church in a world of many religions Gregg's writings on the Church and on other religions emphasize the importance of attentiveness to Christ and the Holy Spirit and both are simultaneously generous and particularist The first part of the book addresses the Church as it is brought into being by the Spirit in glorifying God celebrates the sacraments respects the authority of the creeds is generously Catholic and critiques its own religion The second part looks at the church in a pluralist context as it engages in inter faith dialogue expresses both particularism and universalism speaks of Christ with many names and reads scripture and understands the many covenants found there Gregg offers a programmatic conclusion setting an agenda for theologies of the church and of other religions and their simultaneous relationality Reading Karl Barth Kurt Anders Richardson, 2004 Provides an assessment of Karl Barth's influence and proposes how his work can be used as a guide for contemporary theology Negativism of Revelation? Edward van't Slot, 2015-10-19 What do those who believe have when they have faith What traces does the experience of faith leave in the believer's existence And can theologians assure that their studies will genuinely have something to do with the wholly Other Dietrich Bonhoeffer 1906-1945 operating within the framework of Karl Barth's 1886-1968 theology addressed those questions in order to complete this framework The ensuing dialogue between those great theologians affords us a deeper insight in fundamental concepts such as revelation faith christological concentration analogy church and discipleship In this study Edward van't Slot reads this dialogue with regard to both its historical and its theological significance He shows what Bonhoeffer means when he attacks Barth's positivism of revelation and compares it with Barth's earlier negativism of revelation Religion Index One, 2003 The Breadth of Salvation Tom Gregg, 2020-07-21 All too often the Christian understanding of salvation has been one dimensional reducing all that God has done for us to a single conception or idea Tom Gregg one of today's leading theologians offers a brief accessibly written but theologically substantive treatment of the doctrine of salvation Drawing on the broad tradition of the church and the Christian faith in explaining the Christian understandings of salvation Gregg challenges the contemporary church to be captured afresh by the immeasurable height depth and breadth of God's saving actions Taking Hold of the Real Barry Harvey, 2016-08-25 Dietrich Bonhoeffer writes in one of his last prison letters that he had come to know and understand more and more the profound this worldliness of Christianity In Taking Hold of the Real Barry Harvey engages in constructive conversation with Bonhoeffer contending that the shallow and banal this worldliness of modern society is ordered to a significant degree around the social technologies of religion culture and race These mechanisms displace human beings from their traditional connections with particular locales and relocate them in their proper places as determined by the nation state and capitalist markets Christians are called to participate in the profound this worldliness that breaks into the world in the apocalyptic action of Jesus Christ a form of life that requires discipline and an understanding of death and resurrection The church is a sacrament of this new humanity performing for all to hear the polyphony of life that was prefigured in the Old Testament and now is realised in Christ Unable to find a faithful form of this worldliness in wartime Germany Bonhoeffer joined the conspiracy against Hitler a decision aptly contrasted with a small French church that prepared by its life together over many generations saved thousands of Jewish lives Karl Barth and Dietrich Bonhoeffer Wolf Krötke, 2019-10-15 Wolf Krötke a foremost interpreter of the theologies of Karl Barth and Dietrich Bonhoeffer demonstrates the continuing significance of these two theologians for Christian faith and life This book enables readers to look with fresh eyes at the theologies of Barth and Bonhoeffer and offers new insights for reading the history of modern theology It also helps churches see how they can be creative minorities in societies that have forgotten God Translated by a senior American scholar of Christian theology this is the first major translation of Krötke's work in the English language The book includes a foreword by George Hunsinger

Dogmatic Ecclesiology : Volume 1 Tom Greggs, 2019-11-05 Ecclesiology is a key issue for the present age of church history This groundbreaking work by one of today's leading theologians offers a major Protestant ecclesiology for the church catholic This volume the first of three considers the priesthood of the church in light of the priesthood of Christ Tom Greggs shows the connection between Christ's work as high priest and the universal church's role in salvation All together the three volumes will offer a major statement on the doctrine of the church for Christians from a variety of backgrounds

Critical Review of Books in Religion, 1994 Bonhoeffer's Theology of the Cross J.I. de Keijzer, 2019-10-14 Back cover Engaging Bonhoeffer's dialogues with Barth and Heidegger in Act and Being J I de Keijzer shows how Bonhoeffer both in his critical assessment of Barth's dialectic and his appropriation of Heidegger's ontology articulates a contemporary theological crucis that proves to be deeply influenced by Luther

Encounter, 1983

Dissertation Abstracts International, 1970 Karl Barth in the Theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Andreas Pangritz, 2018-09-28 This important work explores the complex relationship between two of the twentieth century's most formidable Christian thinkers Karl Barth and Dietrich Bonhoeffer Seizing on a much discussed criticism that Bonhoeffer made of Barth's theology in his prison letters that Barth was guilty of a positivism of revelation Andreas Pangritz challenges scholars who have used this statement despite being left undeveloped by Bonhoeffer as a wedge to separate the two theologians Through a careful study of Barth's and Bonhoeffer's works of their correspondence and of Barth's comments and revisions after Bonhoeffer's death Pangritz clarifies the close yet sometimes strained relationship between Barth and Bonhoeffer and cautiously makes the case that Bonhoeffer's criticism has been overemphasized and did not mark a significant breach between the two great theologians Much more than a study of a disputed discourse in historical theology this engaging volume also raises concerns of continuing relevance regarding the role of theology in our secular society

Religion im Erbe Christian Gremmels,Wolfgang Huber,2002      Footnotes to a Theology Martin

Rumscheidt,2006-01-01 The essays which are brought together here were originally delivered during the first colloquium of the Karl Barth Society of North America It met at Victoria University in Toronto on October 26 to 28 1972 and was entitled The Theology of Karl Barth The addresses by Markus Barth and Arthur Cochrane were given during the Colloquium Dinner the others were more formal and followed by at times very animated discussion During that colloquium the Karl Barth Society of North America was inaugurated Its aim far from being a personality cult of Karl Barth is to encourage a critical and constructive theology through the exploration of his work It is envisaged that the assistance given to the Karl Barth Stiftung in Europe in its purpose to collect and preserve all literature by and about Karl Barth the publication of a complete edition of his works together with the establishment on this Continent of a similar collection will make available for theological research materials that will adequately meet the proposed aim Both the academic and the pastoral areas of theology are meant to benefit from the endeavours of this Society from the Introduction by Martin Rumscheidt
