A Theology of Christian Counseling Jay E. Adams, 1986 This book connects biblical doctrine with practical living The reader gains an insight into the rich theological framework that supports and directs a biblical approach to counseling A Theology of Biblical Counseling Heath Lambert, 2016-04-05 A landmark textbook for Christian counselors that unpacks the core theological convictions behind sound counseling and outlines practical wisdom for counseling today Since the beginning of the biblical counseling movement in 1970 biblical counselors have argued that counseling is a ministry of the Word just like preaching or missions As a ministry counseling must be defined according to sound biblical theology rather than secular principles of psychology For over four decades biblical theology has been at the core of the biblical counseling movement Leaders in biblical counseling have emphasized a commitment to teaching doctrine in their counseling courses out of the conviction that good theology leads to good counseling and bad theology leads to bad counseling A Theology of Biblical Counseling is an ideal resource for use in training biblical counselors at colleges seminaries and training institutes In each chapter doctrine comes to life in real ministry to real people dramatically demonstrating how theology intersects with the lives of actual counselees Psychology, Theology, and Spirituality in Christian Counseling Mark R. McMinn, 2010-02-28 Stereotypical tendencies in Christian counseling include either emphasizing sin at the expense of grace or grace at the expense of sin Mark R McMinn seeks to overcome these exaggerations and enable all those in the helping professions see the proper understanding and place of both sin and God's

Study Guide for Jay Adams' Theology of Christian Counseling Sow The Seed Ministries, 2002-01-01

The Christian world has been challenged by the theological mind and prolific pen of Jay Adams. The challenge has been to do ministry biblically. One of the primary emphases of this challenge has been to help believers handle all of life by the proper interpretation and application of God's sufficient Book, the Bible. Maturing the saints, discipling, counseling, ministering, the Word, biblical mentoring are all words and phrases that describe the process. Dr. Adams has challenged us with that, is using God's Word to help God's people grow and change to become more like God's Son, Jesus Christ. This study guide is a tool designed to serve as a companion to Dr. Adams' book A Theology of Christian Counseling. A Theology of Christian Counseling originally entitled More Than Redemption was one of Dr. Adams' first books. It discusses several areas of doctrine including the doctrine of man, Anthropology, salvation, Soteriology, God, Theology, Proper the Scripture, Bibliology, and the local church, Ecclesiology. Each doctrine is treated from a Biblical sufficiency position and applied in practical, relevant ways. After all, the Word of God is useful. II Timothy 3:16 for all of life and godliness. II Peter 1:2-3. Having a systematic understanding of key areas of doctrine will equip you to both live and minister truth more effectively. A Theology of Christian Counseling has been a tremendous help to me in establishing a solid theology for biblical ministry, and I'm convinced it will do the same for you. My desire is to provide a vehicle that will aid the student in using this book for the greatest profit. The study guide questions emphasize only the content of the book itself, helping the student pull pertinent truth for growth in life and ministry. The questions will serve to focus your attention and provide both accountability for you and a record of your study. Local churches, men's and women's groups, small group Bible studies, Bible Institutes, colleges, seminaries, as well as individuals, will benefit from using this study guide.
