The Concept of Group Rights in International Law Corsin Bisaz, 2012-08-28 Through a collective biography of four scholars Erich Kaufmann Hans Kelsen Hersch Lauterpacht and Hans J Morgenthau this book investigates how Jewish identity and intellectual ties to Judaic civilization in the German speaking and legal context influenced international law By using biblical constitutive metaphors it argues that Jewish German lawyers inherited inter alia a particular Jewish legal approach that framed their understanding of the law as a means to reach God The overarching argument is that because of their Jewish heritage Jewish scholars inherited the endorsement of earthly particularism for the sake of universalism and the other way around for the sake of universalism humanity s differences need to be solved through the law William of Ockham's Early Theory of Property Rights in Context Jonathan Robinson, 2012-11-23 This book analyzes William of Ockham s early theory of property rights alongside those of his fellow dissident Franciscans paying careful attention to each friar s use of Roman and civil law which provided the conceptual building blocks of the poverty controversy William of Ockham's Early Theory of Property Rights in Context Jonathan William Robinson, 2012-11-23 William of Ockham s ca 1288 1347 Opus nonaginta dierum has long been of interest to historians for his theory of rights Yet the results of this interest has been uneven because most studies do not take sufficient account of the defences of Franciscan poverty already articulated by his fellow Franciscans Bonagratia of Bergamo Michael of Cesena and Francis of Marchia This book therefore presents and analyzes Ockham s account of property rights alongside those of his confreres This contextualization of Ockham s theory corrects many misconceptions about his theory of property natural law and natural rights and therefore also provides a new foundation for studies of his political oeuvre intellectual development and significance as a political theorist Politics and Poetica of Rights in Modern Iran Behzad Zerehdaran, 2024-03-29 This book delves into the history of subjective rights within the context of 19th century Iran specifically during the eventful Qajar era The crux of its research lies in the emergence and evolution of the concept of subjective rights as opposed to the notion of objective rights During this pivotal period this transition marked a paradigm shift from right as to be right to right as to have a right A central pillar of this book is the creation of a meta theory one that sheds light on the semantical evolution of the concept of rights Within these pages readers will find a concise history tracing the conceptual path that led from the objective to the subjective realm of rights In addition to these historical explorations it delves into the intricate field of rights theory investigating the foundations and justifications of rights Employing the Hohfeldian framework it analyses various conceptions of rights as they manifest within travel literature enlightenment literature and dream literature of the Qajar era This book will be of interest to scholars and students with an interest in Iranian studies Iranian history Persian literature and human rights Human Rights Kerri Woods, 2017-08-24 What are human rights Why do we have them How do we know for sure which rights are specific to humans And how should we respond when we disagree on them and on the obligations we owe to others who claim human
