Therese Of Lisieux Gods Gentle Warrior:

Therese of Lisieux Thomas R. Nevin, 2006-10-12 Therese of Lisieux 1873 1897 also known as St Therese of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face is popularly named the Little Flower A Carmelite nun doctor of the church and patron of a score of causes she was famously acclaimed by Pope Pius X as the greatest saint of modern times Therese is not only one of the most beloved saints of the Catholic Church but perhaps the most revered woman of the modern age Pope John Paul II described her as a living icon of God Her autobiography Story of a Soul has been translated into sixty languages Having long transcended national and linguistic boundaries she has crossed even religious ones As daughter of Allah she is venerated widely in Islamic cultures Therese has been the subject of innumerable biographies and treatises ranging from hagiographies to attacks on her intelligence and mental health Thomas R Nevin has gained access to many untapped archival materials and previously unpublished photographs As a consequence he is able to offer a much fuller and more accurate portrait of the saints life and thought than his predecessors He explores the dynamics of her family life and the early development of her spirituality He draws extensively on the correspondence of her mother and documents her influence on Thereses autobiography and spirituality He charts the development of Thereses career as a writer He gives close attention to her poetry and plays usually dismissed as undistinguished and argues that they have great value as texts by which she addressed and informed her Carmelite community He delves into the French medical literature of the time in an effort to understand how the tuberculosis of which she died at the age of 24 was treated and lamentably mistreated Finally he offers a new understanding of Therese as a theologian for whom love rather than doctrines and creeds was the paramount value Adding substantially to our knowledge and appreciation of this immensely popular and attractive figure this book should appeal to many general readers as well as to scholars and students of modern Catholic history Experiencing God in Everything and Nothingness Annette Potgieter, Khegan M. Delport, 2024-05-03 COVID 19 has impacted the way we see the world and the way we view spirituality in times of crisis people turn or return to religion or spirituality Most of the South African population identifies as Christian This brings to the fore what is meant by spirituality in a country crippled by the remains of apartheid structure rampant corruption poverty and various systemic problems Overall there is a lack of scholarship investigating spirituality and spirituality studies from the global South This book aims to bridge the gap New avenues are investigated of thinking about God in difficult circumstances as ideologies of hope and prosperity are reshaped This book links text and context spirituality and material culture self and society the analogue and the digital contemplation and action saying and unsaying in short the question of experiencing God in both everything and nothingness comes under the scope of this book

Patience with God Tomas Halik, 2009-04-14 For all the debate about belief and nonbelief in today s world and how everyone becomes pigeonholed by one or the other Tom Halik teaches that God requires us to persevere with our doubts carry them in our hearts and allow them to lead us to maturity For Halik patience is the main difference between faith and atheism Faith hope and love are three aspects of patience in the face of God's silence which is interpreted as the death of God by atheists and is not taken seriously enough by fundamentalists Using the gospel story of Jesus's encounter with Zacchaeus Halik issues an invitation to all people who stand like Zacchaeus did on the sideline curious but noncommittal The fact that Jesus gravitated to the poor and the marginalized means that he also has a special place in his heart for diligent seekers on the margins of the community of believers God Isn't Finished with Me Yet Barbara Lee, 2018-03-01 2019 Illumination Book Awards Gold Christian Living 2019 Living Now Book Awards Gold Meditation Relaxation 2019 Best Book Awards Finalist Health Aging 50 2018 Independent Press Awards Winner Aging I haven't finished with my life and neither has God As we see fewer years ahead than behind it can be easy to question our value or what we have left to contribute to our communities How can we continue to give back and live with purpose in our later years Barbara Lee is living this reality every day and in this book she describes the intersection of aging with the timelessness of Ignatian spirituality God Isn't Finished with Me Yet shows readers how God meets us with unexpected grace In five succinct chapters Lee shows how Ignatian prayer and discernment offer those in later life a path to discovering previously unknown vocations and new ways of living and being of service You're still living your life and God is still revealing His grace Becoming God Elizabeth Clare Prophet, 2020-09-29 In this heartfelt and inspiring work renowned author and spiritual teacher Elizabeth Clare Prophet brings alive the insights visions and revelations of the Christian mystics and shows that they are as relevant today as they have ever been Mysticism she explains is not merely a belief or philosophy but an experience that transforms the soul As she unfolds the experiences and threefold path of the Christian mystics you will learn about the indwelling presence the Christ within and your divine identity as well as what the mystics had to say about the dark night soul testing and trials and the living flame of love You will explore the mystics practices of contemplation interior and spoken prayer and visualization Elizabeth Clare Prophet also shares her own profound perspectives on the mystics personal relationship with God and describes how you can walk the mystic path today with the saints and mystics as your mentors and guides Becoming God is one of a series of books by Elizabeth Clare Prophet on the mystical paths of the world's religions Mother Figured Deirdre de la Cruz, 2015-12-30 There is no female religious figure so widely known and revered as the Virgin Mary Mary has inspired in cultures around the world a deep devotion a desire to emulate her virtue and a strong belief in her power Perhaps no population has been so deeply affected by this maternal figure as Filipino Catholics whose apparitions of Mary have increased in response to recent events drawing from a broad repertoire of the Catholic supernatural and pulling attention to new articulations of Christianity in the Global South In Mother Figured historical anthropologist Deirdre de la Cruz offers a detailed examination of several appearances and miracles of the Virgin Mary in the Philippines from materials and sites ranging from the mid nineteenth century to the present By analyzing the effects of the mass media on the perception and proliferation of apparition phenomena de la Cruz charts the intriguing emergence of new voices in the Philippines that are
