Thinking Of Christ Proclamation Explanation Meaning:

Thinking of Christ Tatha Wiley, 2003-10-22 This is a textbook on Christology for the undergraduate graduate and seminary market written by eleven distinguished North American Roman Catholic theologians. The structure of the book and of the individual essays follows a pattern of recovery analysis of the tradition, critique, consideration of special problems, and reconstruction of distinctive Christologies in the contemporary American context. Part I devoted to historical recovery treats Jesus of Nazareth and the significance of historical Jesus research for Christology today. Christological developments resulting in the conciliar definitions of Nicaea and Chalcedon and diverse conceptions of Christ's redemption in the early and medieval church. Part II treats four problems in modern debate: religious pluralism and Christian exclusivist claims; theological anti-Semitism embedded in Christological formulations; legitimation of male privilege via appeals to the masculinity of Jesus and Christ's headship of the church; the use of the Christ symbol to legitimate colonialism and racial exploitation. Finally, Part III offers two examples of contemporary Christologies of social transformation: mujerista Christology and black Christology. Contributors: Lisa Sowle Cahill, Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza, Roger Haight, Ada Maria Isasi Diaz, Robert Lassalle Klein, William Loewe John Pawlikowski, Jamie Phelps, Rosemary Radford Ruether, Gerard Sloyan, and Tatha Wiley.

A Modern Introduction to Theology Philip Kennedy, 2009-09-22 Philip Kennedy here offers the first book that any student with or without religious convictions can profitably use to get quickly to grips with the essentials of the Christian religion: its history and its key thinkers, its successes and its failures. Most existing undergraduate textbooks of theology begin from essentially traditional positions on the Bible, doctrine, authority, interpretation, and God. What makes Philip Kennedy's book both singularly important and uniquely different is that it has a completely new starting point. The author contends that traditional Christian theology must extensively overhaul many of its theses because of a multitude of modern social historical and intellectual revolutions Offering a grand historical sweep of the genesis of the modern age and writing with panache and a magisterial grasp of the relevant debates conflicts and controversies A Modern Introduction to Theology moves a tired and increasingly incoherent discipline in genuinely fresh and exciting directions and will be welcomed by students and readers of the subject

Connecting Jesus to Social Justice Thomas Hughson, 2013-10-10 Many Christians see the societal dimension of their faith as a matter of biblical and social ethics Returning to classical Christology Connecting Jesus to Social Justice explores messianic potential in the Council of Chalcedon on the divine identity of Christ Who Jesus is makes all the difference to Christian entrance into the public sphere on behalf of a just society The Messiah s divinity bears on social mission directed toward a just social order Theological appropriation of Chalcedon overcomes a gap between the professing the Creed and interpreting social existence in light of a just social order Connecting Jesus to Social Justice argues a doctrinally traditional orthodox basis for Christian participation in the public sphere on behalf of social justice The book addresses a situation internal to churches in the U S from a Catholic perspective yet not without analogies in other churches and Christian movements Applying traditional Christology to contemporary social mission solidifies an answer to adversarial queries on the appropriateness of a social agenda Implications in the classical Christology also confirm churches and discipleship in commitment to social justice promoted through a subaltern counter public and then by word and deed in the public sphere

Freedom in Resistance and Creative Transformation Michael St. A. Miller, 2013-04-11 In Freedom in Resistance and Creative Transformation Michael Miller addresses the concept of freedom that is central to the grammar of Christian faith and important in a wide range of religious and nonreligious settings across the globe He confronts the fact that despite the claimed importance of freedom there continues to be interpersonal socio political and religious power hierarchies that keep some people dominant and others subjugated The book suggests that often these hierarchies are informed by Christian teachings that deny freedom to human beings on the basis of their humanity per se Having classified humanity as fallen we are instructed that freedom is experienced by disparaging our humanity as we actually experience it seeing ourselves as our own worst enemies and accepting bondage to God the bondage reflected in the character of relations with those seen as God s special representatives in the world Miller presents a case against this understanding of the human situation and in the process he critically engages the Old and New Testaments along with ideas of significant representatives of Christian orthodoxy As an alternative he promotes freedom that is finite realistically libertarian and relational as most compatible with the character of human beings that are partially self creating and self determining Contributing to this position is the view that an infinitely temporal God by character and desire participates in human life in a way that ensures the requisite space for authentic decision making from which emerges genuinely novel possibilities for human life This dynamic has implications for the continued development of the human species and the quality of life in the cosmos as a whole

Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku, 2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God's saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God's image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God Un/familiar Theology Susannah Cornwall, 2017-06-15 Through engagement with theologies of adoption pro natalism marriage and queer theology Susannah Cornwall figures developments in models of marriage and family not as distortions of or divergences from the divinely ordained blueprint but as developments already of a piece with these institutions being Much Christian theological discussion of family sex and marriage seems to claim that they are or should be unchanging and immaculate that to celebrate their shifting and developing natures is to reject them as good gifts of God However models of marriage family parenting and reproduction have changed and are still in some cases radically changing These changes are not all a raging tide to be turned back but in continuity with goods deeply embedded in the tradition Alternative forms of marriage and family stand as signs of the hope of the possibility of change Changed institutions such as same sex marriage are new beginnings with the potential to be fruitful and generative in their own right In them humans create new imaginaries which more fully acknowledge the interactive nature of our relationships with the world and the divine Reimagining The Moral Life Choi, Ki Joo, Moses, Sarah M., Vincini, SJ, Andrea, 2020-09-16 This volume honors Lisa Cahill's 45 years of teaching Christian ethics at Boston College With contributions from most of the doctoral students she directed during her career it provides an interpretive overview of Cahill's specific contributions to Christian ethics Handbook for the Study of the Historical Jesus (4 Vols) Tom Holmén, Stanley E.
