Three Boomer Broads Remembering While We Still Can:

Three Boomer Broads Sara Slayton, 2015-08-06 With metal roller skates clamped on their shoes three little girls stumble their way through a world of enormous changes One girl lives in California one lives in Illinois and the third lives in Wisconsin It is the 1950s and even though they are separated by hundreds of miles their childhood experiences are similar due to the influences of suburbia and television By the time these girls trade their skates for VW Beetles their lives are completely different They move from Bobby socks to panty hose from sock hops to rock concerts from wearing girdles to going braless But the social changes are even more significant It is a time of the Cold War of Civil Rights of war and protests With humor and tenderness they address the issues of the time from the trivial to the life changing Children don't have the context to recognize the meaning of time passing We're in school we're not in school It's summer it's winter It's daytime it's night With a few holidays thrown in we go through our early lives The Boomer Broads look back to make sense of our personal yet shared times With any luck we learn and the vivid memories stay with us as lessons and stories When we say Where did the time go we need only recall the stories Professional storytellers Sara Slayton Terry Visger and Lynn Wing take you on a wild ride through the 1950s and 1960s They alternately poke fun at and wax nostalgic for the way things were back then At the same time they look at how those past experiences influence who they are today The Boomer Broads say If you are under 50 this book is a history lesson if you are over 50 it is a walk down memory lane

Raleigh, 2013-09-19 Soviet Baby Boomers traces the collapse of the Soviet Union and the transformation of Russia into a modern highly literate urban society through the life stories of the country's first post World War II Cold War generation Remembering the 40'S TRUMAN FIELDS, 2009-09-12 I've often heard it said that everybody has a story to tell and I know this is true but I have found also that we all have a yearning to tell our story Also we have numerous ways to do it through voice writing instruments and machines through photographic and digital images that we make or assemble and also through the pattern of our living and in the things that we create Truman Fields is a many faceted person and he has left plenty of evidence of his interesting story to supplement what he tells us in this book He has been a persistent student teacher and craftsman a successful businessman and an award winning tennis player a superb craftsman and a public servant He was born in the center of the Appalachian coal fields where he attended local schools until his father perceived that Truman had a desire to learn more than might be possible locally sent his reluctant son to Berea Foundation High School at the age of sixteen There in addition to the usual academic subjects he began probing the complexities of electronics metal and wood and of course basketball and tennis Without money he was a half day student meaning he took classes for half the day and worked in the rest of the day for his room and board Thus it would have taken him five years to complete high school so ever restless and inquisitive he decided at the age of twenty to join the Navy for four years The Navy sent him to electronic school before assigning him to a destroyer tender On this ship he saw a great deal of the world At age 24 he re entered the Foundation School for a semester to finish high school and then enrolled at Berea College There he majored in Industrial Arts and played tennis so well that he was a finalist in several tournaments In college he met Joyce Barnes from Tennessee and they were married After graduation Truman taught in Louisville and then moved to Cleveland Ohio where he and Joyce taught for 30 years There Truman also worked successfully part time as a real estate broker and he coached tennis at Baldwin Wallace College Joyce and Truman reared two daughters in Cleveland and their grandchildren who know little of life in the Appalachian Mountains became the main inspiration for this book When Joyce and Truman retired from teaching their love of Berea College and the Berea community drew them back to Kentucky Here they have managed several rental properties and developed home building sights Truman was elected for several terms to Berea City Council taught students faculty and community people to make furniture in the Colleges woodworking shop and coached the college tennis team He also continued to follow the tennis circuits winning many gold metals in his age class Joyce has also been much involved in the arts and crafts scene for which Berea is famous She and Truman are active members of Union Church the mother church of Berea College They are also generous supporters of Berea College in the knowledge that the lives of other young people from the mountains will be enriched there as theirs have been In this book Joyce and Trumans grandchildren and others will learn much about the life Truman lived as a boy about the one room school he attended his classmates the games they played the spelling bees the sporting contests the victories and disappointments in his budding life his teachers and pastors vigorous efforts to teach right from wrong and his own family history Along the way from Big Creek to Berea to Louisville and Cleveland and back to Berea we learn Trumans story and the events that shaped him from the lad on the cover in Happy Jack overalls looking with sharp and expectant eyes to the disciplined tireless teacher public servant athlete auctioneer craftsman and student of all Kentucky things today Hes been a little modest however like most mountain people in telling his story So keep in mind all that he has done all his interests and involvements as he remembers and tells you about his life in the heart of Appalachia Loyal Jones Berea Kentucky

The Land Boomers Michael Cannon, 1995 Boom or bust What was the truth of the great land booms that swept Australia in the 1880s and 1890s How was it that some speculators amassed prodigious fortunes while others went so spectacularly broke Seventy years after the events historian Michael Cannon began sifting through thousands of records and documents long since filed and forgotten He pieced together an incredible trail of corruption and roguery rarely if ever equalled in any parliamentary democracy When the bare bones of this expos were first published in 1966 it caused an immediate sensation as the forebears of many well known families were involved Never before had any Australian historian been able to document such unbridled greed and over riding ambition Extended and revised The Land Boomers is generously illustrated with cartoons photographs and etchings of the time and includes an introduction by the author on how he came to research and write the book Go Naked In The World Tom T. Chamales,2015-11-06 A House Divided Old Pete Stratton a theater tycoon with some shadily earned millions is a shrewd tough patriarch who dominates and dictates the lives of his family In quiet rebellion his beautiful wife Mary becomes a secret drinker his daughter Yvonne learns about life behind her father s back Only his son Nick a battle scarred veteran of twenty three dares openly to defy his father This is the backdrop for Tom T Chamales extraordinary new novel With power and humor the bestselling author of Never So Few charts the rebellion of a son against the tyranny of his father and the shallow confines of a wealthy world The conflict reaches a shattering climax when Nick falls in love with the beautiful and tragic Nora and Old Pete determines to regain control of Nick s future by revealing that the woman his son loves is the town s highest priced call girl A work marked by this writer s passion and vividness The novel carries us along with its compelling intensity Los Angeles Times A vivid believable story peopled with wonderful characters Newark News This is a big novel almost any way you look at it powerfully and luridly written and a remarkable story of a passionate hard living Greek American family in Chicago Boston Sun Herald
