mirror and sees someone who he doesn't recognize. He's tired, looking lacks motivation, his belly is sagging over his belt, his mind is foggy, and maybe even his sex drive has evaporated. What happened? Oh, you're just getting older. People tell him, even his doctor, Endocrinologist Florence Comite MD, doesn't believe we should accept aging as is. She believes any man can restore his body, mind, and energy, prevent disease, and feel strong, confident, and in control once again. Keep It Up will show you how to quantify your own health and then make key changes that will reduce your belly fat and risk of diabetes, revitalize your sex drive, and strengthen your erections and give you more muscle and greater mental agility. Because testosterone affects all of the above aspects of a man's vitality, Dr. Comite shows readers how the cutting edge science of hormone optimization is an effective way to prevent the disorders of aging. Testosterone optimization can absolutely change a man's life. Dr. Comite says it can reduce fat, build lean muscle, and reverse disease, but the most important benefit she says is the feeling of being recharged, feeling more focused, more vigorous, more masculine, more alive. Key chapters in Keep It Up include The Metabolic Tests, The Hormone Tests, The Sleep and Stress Connection, Great Sex, Your Second Act, Building a High Performance Body, The Truth about Hormone Therapies, Advanced Diagnostics, The Future of Medicine Today. Beyond Happy Beth Cabrera, 2015-08-24. Discover pathways to reducing stress, experiencing greater joy, and finding more meaning in your life by employing Cabrera's solid strategies for thriving based on personal values, developed strengths, and what matters most: enduring family ties and relationships. The No Club Linda Babcock, Brenda Peyser, Lise Vesterlund, Laurie Weingart, 2022-05-03. In this long overdue manifesto on gender equality in the workplace, Angela Duckworth, bestselling author of Grit, The No Club offers a timely call and an action plan to unburden women from work that goes unrewarded. The No Club started when four women, crushed by endless to-do lists, banded together to get their work lives under control. Working harder than ever, they still trailed behind their male colleagues. And so they vowed to say no to requests that pulled them away from the work that mattered most to their careers. Their over a decade long journey and subsequent groundbreaking research reveals that women everywhere are unfairly burdened with non-promotable work, a tremendous problem we can and must solve. All organizations have work that no one wants to do: planning the office party, screening interns, attending to that time-consuming client or simply helping others with their work. A woman most often takes on these tasks. In study after study, the original No

Club professors Linda Babcock bestselling author of Women Don't Ask Brenda Peyser Lise Vesterlund and Laurie Weingart document that women are disproportionately asked and expected to do this work The imbalance leaves women overcommitted and underutilized as companies forfeit revenue productivity and top talent The No Club walks through how any woman can rebalance her workload empowering individuals to make savvy decisions about the work they take on The authors also illuminate how organizations can reassess how they assign and reward work to level the playing field With hard data personal anecdotes from women of all stripes self and workplace assessments for immediate use and innovative advice from the authors consulting with Fortune 500 companies this book will forever change the conversation about how we advance women's careers and achieve equity in the 21st century

Rapprochement Between Fathers and Sons Louis Rothschild, 2023-11-23 Following Freud's rather cold conception of fathers and a relative neglect of their role in psychoanalytic theory is a challenge to continue more recent efforts to develop a psychoanalytically affirmative portrait of fatherhood Here fathers are attuned to relational mutuality and intimacy as a source of flourishing Rapprochement is understood as a sub phase of child development marked by a dramatic expression of conflict such as Hear me see me give me space don't give me space In addition rapprochement is considered to characterize conflicts between autonomy and dependency across the lifespan An often muted and subtle tension between holding and letting go persists Working with what is felt entails entering a never fully completed negotiation marked by misreadings bias and illusion Father is understood to be a name pointing to a parenting function With material that includes the grief of failed reunion particular stories are mediated through thinking alongside philosophy and psychoanalytic theory in order to further explore the difficulty of integrating nurturing capacities into conceptions of masculinity As a critique of gendered rigidity a case is made for a social surround that declares mutual vulnerability to exist in a state of permanent inquiry and relational curiosity Such openness can function to aid parents clinicians and respective community members to privilege the development of increased frustration tolerance By extension a good enough father is one who recognizes breakdown a need for refueling and possesses and practices a willingness to encounter uneven rhythms in human dimensions This thoughtful work brings fresh insight into the role of the father and masculinity and is essential reading for mental health professionals

Untethered Doug Bolton, Ph.D., 2025-03-18 An essential guide to restoring our children's behavioral health and wellbeing Over the past decade children's mental health challenges have reached epidemic levels stress anxiety childhood depression and suicide are at unprecedented high rates Amid high stakes pressure for kids to succeed parents and teachers have never needed a road map to healthy child development more urgently And as psychologist and educator Doug Bolton explains in this eye opening and powerful guide underlying our modern day stresses is an even more pervasive problem We're relying on practices that are not in line with what science tells us about how to truly motivate children and help them thrive As Bolton persuasively argues we need to step away from parenting and teaching based on controlling our children with incentives and punishments they focus on short term compliance at the cost of health development Instead creating healthy and strongly bonded communities for our children both in our own families and in our schools is key to their emotional well being and their success in life Untethered offers tools to help us create these communities so our kids develop healthy attachments and learn emotional regulation helping them feel more connected less anxious more included less shamed and more securely grounded The power of communities is not only that they enhance our wellness they buffer us from the impact of trauma and can be a guiding force in helping kids develop resilience Weaving in Bolton s own experiences as a former principal at a therapeutic school and as a father Untethered is a deeply empathetic and powerful guide to combating the isolation we see in this generation today leading them toward a healthier more interconnected future Man Disconnected Philip Zimbardo,Nikita D. Coulombe,2015-05-07 Zimbardo has put his finger on a great challenge of the modern era The Sunday Times Masculinity is in meltdown Young men are failing as never before academically socially and sexually But why And what needs to be done Internationally acclaimed psychologist Philip Zimbardo and research partner Nikita Coulombe show how symptoms include excessive gaming and porn use apathy and drug abuse They argue that digital technologies create alternative worlds that many boys find less demanding and more rewarding than real life yet which are ultimately harmful There is hope Man Disconnected reveals where the solutions are to be found and what action we can take Controversial provocative and insightful this book is an alarm call ignored at our peril Old Man Country Thomas R. Cole,2020 We live in a time of change an era where old men can maintain health but find dignity in frailty Old Man Country helps readers see and imagine this change for themselves The book follows the journey of a writer in search of wisdom as he narrates encounters with twelve distinguished American men over 80 including Paul Volcker the former head of the Federal Reserve and Denton Cooley the world s most famous heart surgeon In these and other intimate conversations the book explores and honors the particular way that each man faces the challenges of living a good old age Mentoring for Ministry Craig Thomas Kocher,Jason Byassee,James C. Howell,2017-05-19 The art of mentoring like all great arts is a grace to be received a gift to be given and a skill that can be learned and practiced This book explores the practice and grace of that art The pastors in these pages share their hard won experience of mentoring and being mentored their wobbles and successes insights and wisdom harvested from years in the vineyard
