What's France got to do with it? Juliana de Nooy, 2020-07-30 While only one book length memoir recounting the sojourn of an Australian in France was published in the 1990s well over 40 have been published since 2000 overwhelmingly written by women Although we might expect a focus on travel intercultural adjustment and communication in these texts this is the case only in a minority of accounts More frequently France serves as a backdrop to a project of self renovation in which transplantation to another country is incidental hence the question What's France got to do with it The book delves into what France represents in the various narratives its role in the self transformation and the reasons for the seemingly insatiable demand among readers and publishers for these stories It asks why these memoirs have gained such traction among Australian women at the dawn of the twenty first century and what is at stake in the fascination with France

Making a Success of Marriage David Yount, 2010-01-16 More than 2 million Americans marry every year each couple determined to live together happily ever after Tragically half of all first marriages fail and subsequent attempts are even more likely to end in divorce David Yount knows that lasting wedlock requires more than romantic love Success depends on a couple's commitment and compatibility of heart and mind to survive the inevitable trials of facing life together Drawing on decades as a counselor and his own experience as a husband and parent Yount puts readers on the path to build joyful loving and committed relationships Yount offers no nonsense advice on a wide range of issues including financial budgeting maintaining health dealing with in laws parenting sharing responsibilities establishing common values and recovering from divorce He includes questions designed to stimulate reflection and discussion on key issues such as compromise religious beliefs equality in marriage and more some surprising Marriage is the great adventure into the unknown Making a Success of
