Cheryl Hawk, Will Evans, 2013-01-24 Health Promotion and Wellness is designed to provide health care providers with both the theoretical knowledge and practical skills they need to provide high quality clinical preventive services. This unique resource is separated into two sections. The first section gives information on risks, ways providers can assess for risk, and tools they can use to advise and help patients move forward. The second section is a tool kit with information, resources, tools, and other items that can help the clinician provide evidence-based, patient-centered information to their patients. This accessible reference provides readers with the basic elements necessary to help their patients change their health behavior related to the most prevalent risk factors and to serve as a springboard to keep pace with the latest evidence arising in the applied science of wellness, prevention, and health promotion. INSIDE YOU WILL FIND: Screening, prevention, health promotion, and advising information and resources that will complement your routine care of the patients you serve. Instructions for how to appropriately use CPT codes for billing preventive services. Healthcare Administration: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources, 2014-08-31 As information systems become ever more pervasive in an increasing number of fields and professions, workers in healthcare and medicine must take into consideration new advances in technologies and infrastructure that will better enable them to treat their patients and serve their communities. Healthcare Administration: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications brings together recent research and case studies in the medical field to explore topics such as hospital management, delivery of patient care, and telemedicine among others. With a focus on some of the most groundbreaking new developments as well as future trends and critical concerns, this three-volume reference source will be a significant tool for medical practitioners, hospital managers, IT administrators, and others actively engaged in the healthcare field.
